Khrush Says U.S. Plane Shot Down, Warns Of Rockets if Bombers Fly Over Russia

Public Is Hailed in CD Test

Bomb, Dust 'Kill' 7,400 in Ulster

Public participation in "Operation Alert 1960" was reported to have been "excellent" by Major H. Edgar Timmerman, director of Civil Defense for Ulster County, but a "theoretical" bomb blast near Stewart Field at Newburgh "killed" 7,400 in southern Ulster after adverse winds carried radio active "fallout" and effects of the blast northward.

4,500 'Seriously Ill'

In addition to the "dead" there will be an additional 4,500 "seriously ill" who will need medical attention during the next few days as a result of radiation sickness, some of whom will ultimately die.

Major Timmerman said the Ulster County Office of Civil Defense was still evaluating the effects of the theoretical blasts of Tuesday's test.

Ulster County was fairly free of "bomb" blast effects except in the southern portion. A "bomb" blast in the Syracuse-Utica area caused some spill-over of fall-out to the west and Ulster County was cut off from areas north of beyond Fleischmanns to the west.

All Bridges Open

Theoretically Route 28 was open for dispersal of those driven from their homes in bomb blast areas and Major Timmerman said all bridges over the Hudson to Dutchess County were open. This permitted the theoretical exchange of materials between Ulster and Dutchess Counties.

Ellenville 'Confined'

Under the problems submitted to Ulster County few persons came into Ulster County from the south, being cut off by the Stewart Field bombing, and from the north and west by the fall-out from the Syracuse bombing. People in Ellenville were theoretically "confined to cellars" because of fall-out unless they were able to get to the central portion of the county or up Route 28. The test indicated a four-day contamination of Ellenville areas before the all clear could be sounded.

Major Timmerman said the test Tuesday indicated Ulster County was ready and able to care for the residents of the county in the event of emergency in relation to food, clothing, medical care and other needs for a period of 14 days.

Proposes Weekly Tests

As a result of the accidental sounding of several fire alarm sirens shortly before the Civil Defense alert, Major Timmerman said his office would propose a weekly test of fire sirens, perhaps on Saturdays when men would be available to the fire stations.

Just before the alert was sounded at 2:15 p. m. Tuesday an alarm for a fire in Suffolk County touched off several sirens in Ulster County. These sirens were not "re-set" immediately and as a result the sirens did not sound at the CD alert. They were blown some time later. This accidental sounding the sirens "triggered" over Ulster County's two-way radio system had plagued the system since installation and the difficulty has been traced to Suffolk County. Sirens

Kingston Listed Among 20 Areas Eligible for Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 251-million-dollar depressed areas bill passed by the House Wednesday would affect twenty New York State areas.

Under the bill, these areas would be eligible for the aid, primarily in the form of loans:

Albany-Schenectady-Troy, Buffalo, New York City, Utica-Rome, Amsterdam, Auburn, Batavia, Corning - Hornell, Elmira, Glens Falls - Hudson Falls, Gloversville, Jamestown - Dunkirk, Kingston, Newburgh - Middletown - Beacon, Ogdensburg - Massena-Malone, Olean-Salamanca, Oneida, Plattsburgh, Watertown and Wellsville.

Only Amsterdam, Auburn and Gloversville would be eligible for aid under the Eisenhower administration's 57-million-dollar proposal or the 389-million-dollar bill already approved by the Senate.

Says System 'Woefully Lacking'

High School Needs All-New Fire Alarm

The Kingston Board of Education Wednesday evening authorized Perkins & Will, school architects, to prepare plans and specifications for a new fire alarm system for Kingston High School.

A recent survey of the system showed "extremely hazardous conditions," Whitney Murphy, representing Perkins & Will, told the board.

He said the system is "woefully lacking" in supervisory control which detects errors in the system, that several gongs, when actuated, will set off the "trouble bell," that the voltage drop in the system is so great that some bells ring too faintly, that some of the stations are defective, some have improper coding, and that much of the wire is below standard.

Advises New System

He recommended a new fire alarm system to clear up the condition.

It would require an entirely new re-wiring job, he said. The alarm would be plugged directly into the Kingston Fire Department.

When the plans are completed they will be put out to bid.

It was pointed out that a job such as this could probably be completed during the summer months. If the work is done while school is in session the costs are considerably more.

To Include Sprinklers

Perkins & Will have been directed to include fire sprinklers in their plans for the new junior high school in the Dietz Stadium area and a survey is now being conducted by the board to ascer-

Central Commissary Is Approved for Schools

A central commissary plan under which hot food will be prepared at Kingston High School and delivered to city elementary schools on an experimental basis was approved Wednesday evening by the Kingston Board of Education (Consolidated).

Hot lunches are now being delivered from KHS to Schools 2, 5 and 8. This program was begun several months ago.

The board's action last night extends the program to Schools 3, 4, 6 and 7. Only the George Washington School in the city is excluded. It has its own kitchen and cafeteria. The board's action does not affect the district's outlying schools.

John W. Johnson, director of the cafeteria program of the Kingston School District (Consolidated), spoke at some length last night, urging expansion of the central commissary plan.

Johnson estimated that the cost of preparing a hot lunch might be reduced as much as six cents per lunch under the commissary plan.

Payroll costs under such a plan he estimated at $70.65 per day compared to the present payroll cost of $110.87 per day. Payroll is the cost of labor.

Johnson made it clear, however, that he desired to retain the entire staff of cooks and helpers, pointing out that they are experienced and that the local school system will be expanding steadily and will need the services of an enlarging staff.

He called attention to the construction of a new junior high school in the Dietz Stadium area. As the district expands its facilities, he said, "we will absorb all personnel." He said that some part-time help might be affected.

Johnson said that he could use a panel truck equipped with racks for delivery of hot lunches. Perhaps later on the truck might be equipped also with a heating unit to maintain food temperatures.

Plan Used by IBM

He explained that the central commissary idea is being used to some extent by the local IBM plant, that food is prepared in the central kitchen and distrib-

69 New Members Signed in Chamber By 50 Volunteers

"Operation Minuteman" conducted by the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce yesterday was a huge success, according to President Norman L. McLeod and General Chairman John W. Egbert.

Sixty-nine new memberships were reported for the day with quite a large number of calls which could not be completed. More reports were to be turned in today.

The fifty voluntary workers were divided into six squadrons, each with a captain. The group captained by William R. Stall accounted for 18 new memberships and Captain H. Irvin Etchells squadron was very close with 17. The group headed by Sam Pepper and Joseph E. O'Connor accounted for 10 new members each.

In commenting on the success of "Operation Minuteman," both President McLeon and Chairman Egbert, expressed the sincere appreciation of all members and officers of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce for the great amount of time contributed by the volunteer workers. All of them took time off from their busy work schedules in behalf of the Chamber of Commerce.

Britain Agog On Eve of Royal Rites

By DENNIS NEELD

LONDON (AP) — Princess Margaret's wedding eve and the big question today was whether she would marry a commoner.

Or will Queen Elizabeth II elevate bridegroom-to-be Antony Armstrong-Jones to the peerage?

Possibility Debated

If Armstrong-Jones goes to the altar Friday in Westminster Abbey without a title, Margaret will be the first English princess in 450 years to marry a plain mister.

Britons today were debating whether such a break with tradition would be good or bad.

Final preparations went ahead for the big event, which has drawn thousands of tourists from the United States and Europe three weeks before the start of the usual tourist season.

By tonight the stage will be set,

Nixon Moves to Avoid Blame If Rocky Rejects Second

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon appears to be laying the groundwork to avoid any political blame if Gov. Rockefeller rejects second place on the GOP ticket.

Nixon's statement Wednesday that the New York governor has "tremendous support" among Republicans for national office was interpreted in some quarters as part of a campaign to display the Vice President's regard for Rockefeller's abilities.

The statement appeared to be aimed at mollifying Republicans who feel that Rockefeller was forced out of the presidential nomination race by leaders who didn't want any challenge to the security of their party positions under Nixon.

Nixon told a later news conference that a majority of Republican leaders favor Rockefeller for the vice presidential nomination. It is likely they "will still feel this way" at convention time, he added.

Both comments were made in New York, where Nixon appeared

One Way On Streets Is Opposed

Ellenville Zoning Favored by Many

Approximately 45 residents of Ellenville attended the first public hearing on the proposed Master Plan for the village which has been prepared by Brown Engineers, Inc., city planners of New York. The plan has been under study for nearly two years by the Ellenville Planning Commission, headed by Deyo W. Johnson.

At the meeting held at the Central School, maps and displays prepared by Brown Engineers, Inc., in cooperation with the Ellenville Planning Commission were shown and the proposals were reviewed.

Details Are Shown

Under the Master Plan future development of the village is detailed. It includes the re-routing of roads and highways including one way streets, dividing the community into zoned areas for future construction and contains plans for anticipated development of the village.

A proposed zoning ordinance was read in considerable detail and resulted in considerable confusion, when apparently many of those in attendance were "lost" during the lengthy reading.

Most Favor Zoning

There was considerable opposition to a proposed plan for one way streets. Many of the merchants opposed this proposal. In an informal vote taken at the meeting it was stated that approximately two-thirds of those present favored zoning.

Although nothing "definite" was accomplished at the public hearing, which was the first legal step in the presentation of the Master Plan, it gave the opportunity for study of the proposed final zoning maps. Maps of the preliminary stages of the plan were placed on display last summer but few people viewed them. There was considerable interest displayed last evening in the proposed final zoning maps.

The public hearing on the Master Plan last evening will be followed by a hearing May 17 at the Ellenville Central School on the proposed Zoning Ordinance. At that time the Zoning Commission will present the full Zoning Ordinance.

Land Transfer Still Pending

Dietz School Plans Expected in June

Architects were authorized to prepare preliminary plans for the proposed new junior high school in the Dietz Stadium area at the May meeting of the Kingston Board of Education (Consolidated) Wednesday evening.

Whitney Murphy, representing Perkins & Will, school architects, told the board that he hoped to have the basic design for the 1,000-pupil structure ready by the end of June.

If plans proceed on schedule the new junior high should be ready for occupancy by the opening of school in September, 1962.

Transfer Still Pending

Of course, transfer of 3.5 acres of land in the Dietz Stadium area is still pending. The Common Council gave a first reading Tuesday evening to a local law which would transfer the land to the board of education.

Murphy said the school is estimated to cost $19 per square foot, which is the original budget set up in 1957. He feels that it may be possible to stick to this budget, despite rising costs. He pointed out, however, that a "four per cent bump" in steel is anticipated in November.

The figure of $19 per square foot applies to actual construction of the building. It does not include site development or cost of equipment.

Murphy explained that $19 per square foot won't buy a "plush" building, but that it should be adequate.

He said that the only unknowns are the costs involved in excavation, or adjustment to site, explaining that there is a lot of rock under the site, cropping out in a number of spots.

Core borings must first be obtained to ascertain what the

Hoderath Named Acting Principal While Miller Ill

Hubert Hoderath was appointed Wednesday evening by the Kingston Board of Education (Consolidated) as acting principal of Kingston High School on a temporary basis during the illness of Principal M. Clifford Miller.

It is reported that Miller's doctor has prescribed a rest which will continue at least through the remainder of the present school year.

G. Warren Kias, director of physical education, was appointed to assist Hoderath on a half-time basis.

The duties of principal will be in addition to Hoderath's work as director of vocational education and principal of the adult education program.

Hoderath will receive an additional $200 per month and Kias $100 more per month.

Pentagon Admits Jet Is Missing

Casts Gloom Over Summit Prospects

MOSCOW (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev told the Soviet Parliament in a bristling speech today that Soviet armed forces have shot down a plane he described as a U. S. military craft. He threatened to retaliate with rockets if American bombers appear over the Soviet Union.

The Soviet Premier's speech cast gloom over prospects for the summit conference opening in 11 days. He issued an unveiled threat to U. S. allies, took a hefty sla' at Vice President Richard M. Nixon, and charged that President Eisenhower's freedom of movement at the summit is being restricted by "certain U. S. circles."

Hits Sit-in Plan

Khrushchev referred angrily to Eisenhower's suggestion that Nixon might sit in for him at the summit if the President's presence is required in Washington on domestic matters.

Khrushchev said he had met Nixon several times and it was difficult for him not to gain the impression Nixon was the last person to think of stopping the cold war or ending the arms race.

"I am afraid that if Nixon becomes entitled ot carry on negotiations at the summit, it would be, as we say in Russia, like sending a goat to take care of the cabbage," the Soviet Premier said.

The Supreme Soviet — Parliament session burst into a wave of applause as Khrushchev announced the downing of an American plane May 1.

A single-engine jet U2 research plane has been missing since May 1 after a takeoff in Turkey, Pentagon officials said. It is assumed to have come down near Lake Van, not far from the border of Soviet Armenia.

(In this general area a U.S. C130 transported was downed by Soviet forces in 1958. By U. S. reckoning, the Soviets accounted for only 6 of 17 men lost then. The U2, a ship assigned to National Aeronautics and Space Administration, is a flying laboratory assigned to make weather observations and check air for radioactivity).

Aggressive Act: Premier

Khrushchev called the plane incident an aggressive act, and asked rhetorically of the United States:

"If you think you can take such measures, why don't you think we can take similar measures when a plane appears over our territory and threatens the security of our country? We have the same rights as you, the same means as you.

"We have no bombers on duty, but we have rockets on duty. They are more accurate and trustworthy than your bombers."

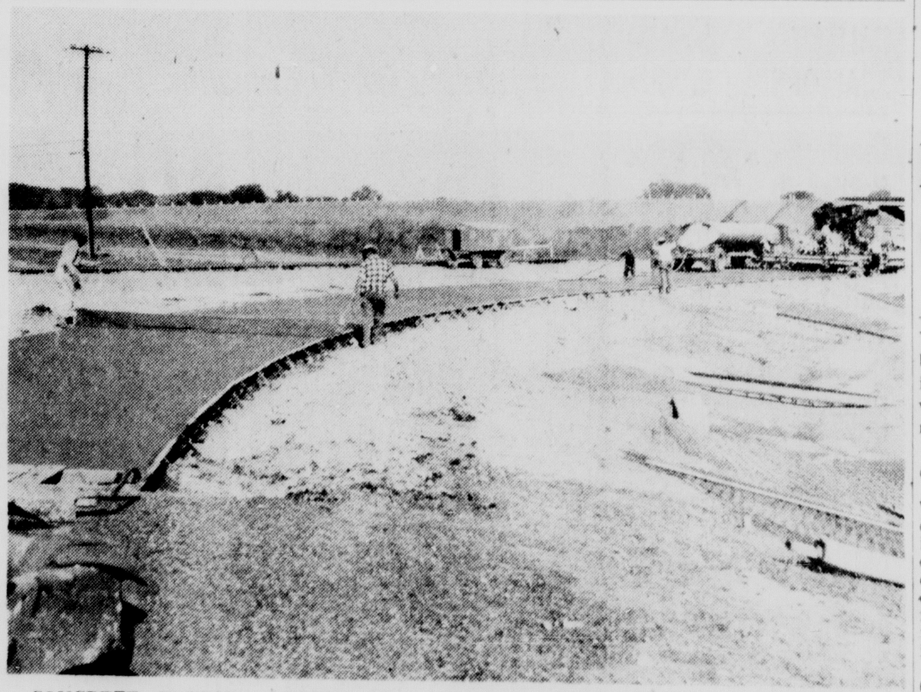

Then came the threat to U.S. allies. Khrushchev said it is high time for those countries which have provided the United States with bases to realize they are playing with fire and that they, too, can suffer retaliatory blows.

The Soviet leader contended the American plane was sent on a mission to impress and frighten the Soviet Union on the eve of the summit.

No Word About Fliers

Khrushchev did not disclose the

Police Group Supports Chief in Quiz Refusal

KIAMESHA LAKE, N. Y. (AP) —The Police Conference of New York has voted unanimously to back the action of Buffalo police in refusing to fill out State Investigation Commission questionnaires.

The annual convention ends today with the election of officers.

In opposing the questionnaires Wednesday, the third of the four-day gathering, the 800 delegates in a resolution "condemned and opposed...any plan designed to cause a system of mass informers, to condone turning brother officer against brother officer and to give credence to baseless opinions and misinformation..."

The delegates, representing 50,000 members, declared that "no group of men, police officers or otherwise, should submit to such an indignity and such unwarranted procedure" as the questionnaire sent to Buffalo police by the commission.

However, the conference approved a letter to the commission offering the state body any aid "consistent with what in our judgment are sound principles of investigation."

The letter, signed by conference president JOHN Martin, also said that "it is not the desire of the police conference to deter the efforts of the commission."

Another resolution charged Gov. Rockefeller with ignoring the needs of police officers. The resolution said that Rockefeller has professed an interest in police welfare in his annual messages, but that "his record does not support his interest."

"Thus," the resolution continued, "we have the spectacle of the chief executive of the state talking out of both sides of his mouth. His actions belied his words."

Political Roundup

Debate Is Mild, Humphrey Still Hopeful of Chances

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) and John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) met head-on in a television debate last Wednesday night at Charleston, W. Va.

The two rivals for the Democratic presidential nomination produced no sparks, no fireworks. The tone was mild and unbitter.

Humphrey did take issue with a constant Kennedy refrain—that Humphrey has no chance to be nominated and a vote for him in West Virginia's May 10 primary is wasted.

Not Tied Up Yet

Asked if he thought he had a chance, Humphrey said:

"I most sure!" do."

He added "No Democrat has this nomination tied up. If you have 200 (convention) votes you're just as much alive politically as the man with 500 votes."

The debate was televised over a state network, but was seen in some out-of-state cities.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, unopposed for the Republican presidential nomination, had kind words in New York Wednesday for the man who bowed out of the race against him—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Nixon told a news conference Rockefeller has "tremendous support throughout the country for national office among the Republicans." But he begged off on any direct expression that he wants Rockefeller for his running mate and put it up to the governor. In Albany Rockefeller repeated that he won't accept the second place spot.

There have been reports that Nixon would like to have Rockefeller on the ticket. Nixon's statement Wednesday was viewed in some quarters as an attempt to make sure no one would put the blame at his door if Rockefeller continues adamant about refusing the vice presidential nomination.

Footnotes on Tuesday's primaries:

Nixon's Plurality 50,000

District of Columbia: Complete unofficial returns in the presidential popularity poll: Humphrey 7,831, Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) 5,866. The only non-Humphrey delegate candidate to win a convention seat was a Morse delegate. Humphrey is assured of all nine D.C. convention votes because of a unit rule.

Indiana: On nearly complete returns, Nixon's plurality over Kennedy in the respective GOP and Democratic primaries was more than 50,000 votes. Nixon had 400,291 to Kennedy's 350,190, but the Democratic party outpolled the Republican total 433,957 to 418,039. Leaders of both parties claimed sustenance and cheer from the results.

Righters Pledge Bolt

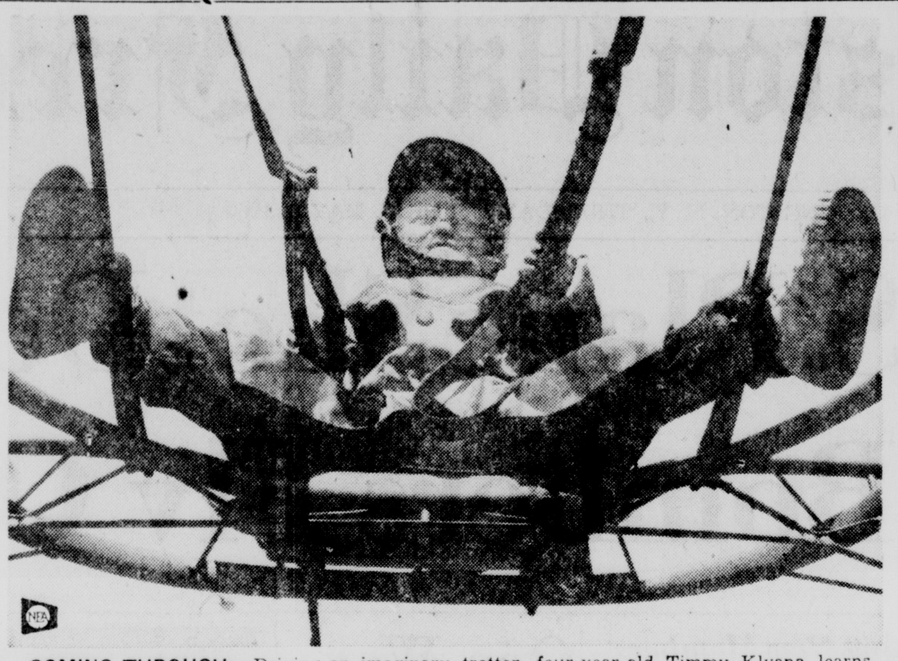

Alabama: States Rights candidates for presidential elector, pledged to bolt the Democratic party if it picks a nominee they disapprove, apparently held firm control over a portion of the state's votes in the electoral college. Three States Righters clearly won on the basis of incomplete returns. All but one of the remaining eight candidates in the top 11 were States Righters. If the trend continues those eight would get another chance in a May 31 runoff election against party Loyalist candidates.

Lake Minnewaska Will Open Friday

Lake Minnewaska, world-famous resort located in the Shawangunk Mountains in Ulster County, will open for its 82nd season Friday, May 6.

Many local residents can remember riding up the mountain in carriages or Model T's to spend a day at Lake Minnewaska. This kind of family outing may still be enjoyed, but now it is much easier. The beautiful Minnewaska Trail, Routes 44 and 45, goes past the Gate House not far from Kerhonkson.

There is a Sunday church service in the Wildemere parlor and guests who arrive early, at 11 a. m., are always welcome to attend this service. Dr. T. Valentine Parker will be resident minister again this year. Sunday evenings at 8:30 there is an old-fashioned hymn sing in the parlor to which everyone is welcome.

Verdict Appealed

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Attorneys are appealing a directed verdict that denied a Pittsburgh carpenter damages on grounds he contracted lung cancer from smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

U. S. Dist. Judge John L. Miller Wednesday instructed the jury to return a directed verdict of acquittal for the Ligett & Myers Tobacco Co.

Otto Pritchard, 61, claimed he contracted lung cancer from smoking Chesterfields for more than 20 years. His cancerous right lung was removed in 1953. He sought $1,250,000 in damages.

Two Get $45,000 In Bank Robbery

STROUDSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Two men armed with nickel-plated revolvers robbed the Monroe Security Bank and Trust Co. at nearby Brodheadsville of an estimated $45,000 Wednesday.

Police threw up roadblocks in an effort to trap the gunmen who entered the one-story, stone and brick structure about 11 a. m., pointed their guns at the bank manager and a teller, and said:

"Don't say anything. Keep quiet."

They forced Miss Ava Sommers, 38-year-old teller from East Stroudsburg to press a button releasing the door to an inner office. There they ordered Anton Vogler, 45, the manager, to raise his hands.

Warning Miss Sommers and Vogler not to give an alarm, they walked into the vault, scooped up money into a large bag, closed the vault and ran out to a car parked near the bank.

Vogler telephoned an alarm to State Police at Stroudsburg and the Federal Bureau of Investigation was alerted. He told authorities the loot was mostly in bills of 5, 10 and 20 dollar denominations.

Vogler and Miss Sommers described the robbers as white men with dark complexions.

They said one was about 30, 5-feet-4, 120 pounds, wearing black gloves, black hat, black sweater and trousers. He wore horn rimmed sunglasses.

The other they said was about 50, 5-9, 150 pounds and wearing a green sweater and brown hat. Miss Sommers said he needed a shave.

Headquarters for the bank is in Stroudsburg with branches in East Stroudsburg, Brodheadsville and Mountainhome.

Brodheadsville is a small community about 11 miles west of Stroudsburg in the Pocono Mountains.

Mercy Proposal Not Likely to Accomplish Much

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A mercy recommendation in the trial of a confessed multiple slayer may have boosted his chances of dodging Florida's electric chair.

But even if trigger-happy Dennis Whitney goes scot-free in Florida, Arizona and California authorities want him for four other murders he has confessed.

An all-male jury Wednesday convicted the 17-year-old California drifter of first degree murder in the shooting of Virginia Selby. The verdict carried a recommendation of mercy, which means a mandatory sentence of life imprisonment.

Dade County (Miami) has a hold order on Whitney for two filling station holdup slayings. But State Attorney Richard E. Gerstein of Dade County said he would confer with Palm Beach County Prosecutor Phil O'Connell before deciding whether to call the pimply-faced defendant to trial in Miami.

"I feel he has been tried for the most brutal killing of all," Gerstein said. He indicated that if O'Connell thinks Whitney might get a death sentence for his Miami crimes, the youth will be tried for them.

Mrs. Selby, 62, was the last of Whitney's seven victims in a 42-day series of holdups between California and Florida. He confessed that he killed one man in California, three in Arizona and two in Florida.

Several Are Set To Oppose Rate Hike of Niagara

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Representatives of several Central New York counties were set today to present arguments against Niagara Mohawk Power Co.'s bid for a $3,844,000-a-year increase in natural gas rates.

The hearing was resumed before the Public Service Commission to consider the objections. Niagara Mohawk already has presented its case.

At hearings in March, Niagara Mohawk contended it had held the line on natural gas rates as long as possible and needed the increase to meet rising costs.

The rate hike would affect the utility's 355,000 residential, industrial, and commercial customers in Central, Northern and Eastern New York.

Minimum monthly charges for residential and commercial users would go from $1 for 400 cubic feet of gas to $1.25 for 300 cubic feet. Homeowners in Central New York, who now pay lower rates, would bear the brunt of the proposed increases.

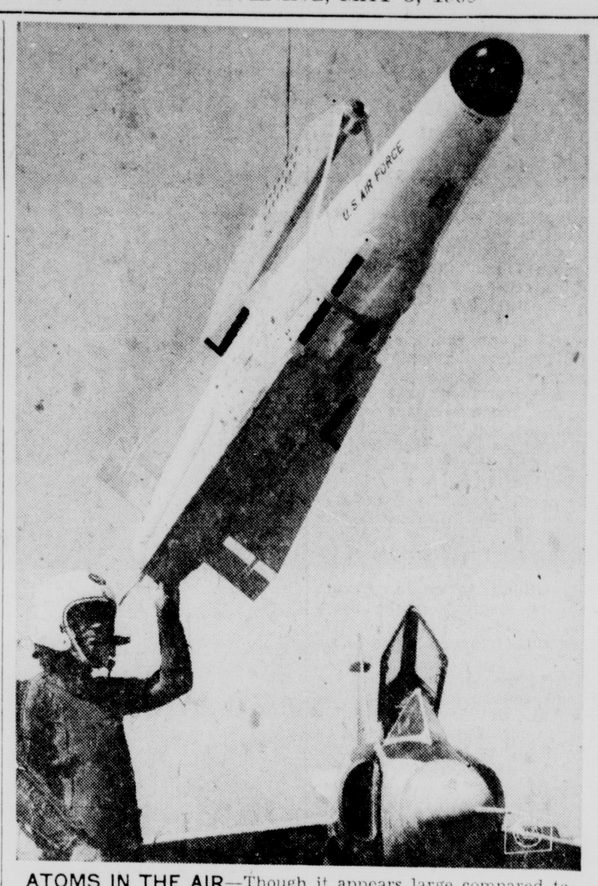

Industrial and commercial rates would be increased by $512,000.

Niagara Mohawk said, in arguments for the increase, that it had an obligation "to render natural gas service at a reasonable price," but added that it carried an equally important obligation to see that stockholders are fairly compensated for their investment.

ATOMS IN THE AIR—Though it appears large compared to test pilot Chris M. Smith, this newest Air Force missile is small compared to its destructive power. It's the GAR-11 Falcon, the first air-to-air guided missile armed with a nuclear bomb. The F-102A jet interceptor in background will carry the missile.

Mrs. McClure Sues

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Doug McClure, gun-slinging co-star of the "Overland Trail" TV series, has been sued for divorce.

Faye McClure, 21, charged mental cruelty in the suit filed Wednesday. She and McClure, 25, were married in Honolulu in 1957 and separated a week ago.

Gives Up Son

BRIGHTON, England (AP) — Dry-eyed and unmoved, Yvonne Moore Wednesday night handed over her unwanted 11-day-old son to the American wife who hopes to adopt him.

"I know you will look after him and love him more than I ever could," she told 38-year-old Gladys Simon of New York, who flew here to collect the baby.

Mrs. Moore, 39, and married 20 years, claims she's too old now to start a family. Her husband, a bus driver, quit his job because of the neighbors' criticism of their desire to get rid of the baby.

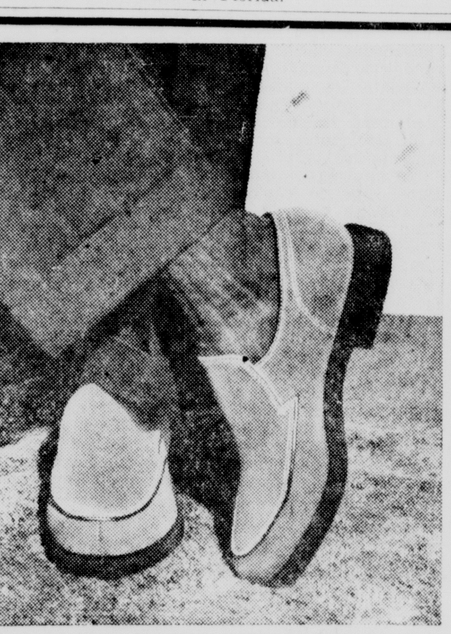

British-born Mrs. Simon will stay six months in this country to complete the legal process of adoption.

CENSORSHIP OF IDEAS

A considerable time ago the Internal Revenue Service ruled that the cost of "opinion" advertising is not a necessary and legitimate business expense, and hence is not a deductable item for tax purposes. The principal target of this ruling has been the utility industry, which has extensively used advertising to present its side of the public-vs.-private power issue.

But if anyone believes that this form of censorship by taxation is of direct interest only to one or a few large enterprises, it is high time to think again.

Editor & Publisher tells us of the experience of Editor A. H. Washburn, of the Hope, Arkansas, Star. Mr. Washburn spent about $6,000 in an effort to obtain a popular vote on a question of a state sales tax. In his opinion, passage of the tax would mean a loss of income to his paper. But now the Tax Court has ruled that his campaign was not an ordinary business expense, and is not tax deductible.

It is clear that if the ruling is allowed to stand, no one will be able to use advertising or related form of communication to express his views on public issues without running the risk of severe tax penalty. And this, as the American Newspaper Publishers Association has put it, amounts to nothing less than censorship of ideas.

The remedy, apparently, lies in Congressional action. A number of corrective bills are pending. But Editor & Publisher says its advices indicate that "a floodtide of grass roots pressure" will be needed if any of them are to reach the floor during the current session. May the floodgates open!

Scientists are trying to detect messages from other planets. Don't be surprised if Russia reports getting the first word.

AIR POLLUTION CURB

The California state legislature recently took a sensible step toward alleviating air pollution. Other states would do well to follow suit.

While the topography of Southern California has made the smog problem exceptionally acute in that area, other regions of the country also are faced with the concentration of noxious particles in their atmospheres. When California made it mandatory that automobiles in that state install fume-suppressors, a laudable pattern was established.

While automobile exhaust fumes are not solely to blame for pollution, they account for a great deal of it in the metropolitan areas. These fumes also have been the hardest to control. Industry has cooperated to an admirable extent, in the filtration of smoke and noxious gases. But the automobile, truck and bus continue free to load up our irreplaceable air supply.

As the number of internal combustion engines grows, the need to suppress their fumes in crowded areas will become inescapable. California lawmakers believe the steps now taken will solve the problem there in a half dozeu years. They have provided a good lead for other state legislatures to follow.

After two months of decline, living costs turned upward again. There was a little disappointment, but no surprise.

SOMETHING TO CHEW OVER - - -

It probably surprised no one that the cost of living index just inched up another fraction. Seems we're just too used to that to do more than give a resigned sigh.

What was surprising, though, was the news the other day that the price of chewing gum will be going up, at least with one major manufacturer. The increase amounts to about a quarter-cent a pack. How or whether it will be passed on to the consumer isn't clear.

The surprise is that it is the first increase in over 42 years. Last was in 1917.

Too bad this strong point in the struggle against inflation has come unstuck. But one increase in 42 years we guess is not too big a chaw.

'These Days'

TELLING THE BRITISH

William Clark monitored a television show for the British people, telling them all about the United States. His program consisted of dissenters, some of them astonishingly off-beat, who told the British people what is wrong with America.

Norman Thomas was brought into this unlikely company. Norman Thomas has all his life been a dissenter and has come out of it one of the most respected men in America. On Clark's program, he said:

". . . Oh, we're still a democracy, an imperfect democracy; but I'm not decrying it altogether but practically we're governed by four bureaucracies. The Civil Government bureaucracy, the Military bureaucracy, the bureaucracy of big management in big business and big labour. . . ."

The great Norman Thomas was followed by someone called Nipsey Russell, who is a Negro. Of him, William Clark said:

"Nipsey Russell appearing as he does each night at a night club in Harlem, New York's Negro quarter. An individual dissenter who uses humour to reflect and colour the bitterness of his race."

However, I find nothing to quote. Russell seems to have been too angry to make much sense. Adam Clayton Powell did better at Bandung. Norman Mailer, who followed Nipsey Russell, said this:

". . . But it does to me seem true that the most adventurous and the most lively of the Negroes in America have developed a tradition of living in the present which has been almost an underground tradition and has by now given the boring, cancerous state of American life this new tradition of the Negro has come to have an enormous appeal to Americans because it's a way of staying alive, it's a way of finding one's growth. Now it's quite nihilistic of course, and it's quite ruthless in a way, everyone is, if you take it to its end, obviously every hipster must be first concerned with his own needs and pay very little attention to the needs of others unless they happen to agree with his own. . . ."

William Clark, seeking authentic Americana, hits on Grant Avenue in San Francisco and comes up with one Bob Kaufman who had this amazing comment to make on his own country:

"The Abomunist Manifesto. Abomunists join nothing but their hands, legs or other senses. Abomunists do not look at pictures painted by presidents and unemployed prime ministers. In times of national peril abomunists, as real Americans, stand ready to drink themselves to death for their country. Abomunists will not feel pain no matter how much it hurts. Abomunists will not use the word 'square' except when talking to squares. Abomunism was founded by Barabbas, inspired by his dying words 'I wanted to be in the middle, but I went too far out.' Abomunism's main function is to unite the soul with oatmeal cookies. Abomunists love love, hate hate, drink drinks, smoke smokes, live lives, die deaths. Abomunist writers write writing or nothing at all. Abomunists demand the re-establishment of the government in its rightful home at Disneyland."

Kaufman said more which is equally intelligible. There were two more Beatniks, Ginsberg and Orlovsky, who were also brilliant. Ginsberg, for instance, said: "I like poetry that smells, that has a smell to it." To give another side of the United States, a side, I am sure, you never saw in America, William Clark gave his British audience, Philip Lamantia. Ever hear of him? He said to the people of England:

". . . And I go around with whoever, which means all kinds of weird persons, I like. Junkies, tricks, dummy poets, mads, hold-up men, squares, priests, monks, professional bums, beat Jews, Jew-haters, Spade-trumpet players, pot-heads, Zen nuts, Anti-spades, super gigolos, coke-heads, murderers, okie poets, smugglers, put-down artists, hippies, flips and black supremacy, white supremacy, and red Indian supremacy—wild ones. My myth is my people—they make grass grow on sky. Fire and who knows when the ghost of Edgar Allan Poe lumine my nights. I'm high most of the time, the sickest of San Francisco all around me. I'm the sickest of San Francisco. I want opium. Police confiscate opium. I want police to give me opium. . . ."

A nice picture of Whitechapel or Chelsea in London but do we have such people here?

I have run out of room, but not out of witnesses. There will be others who will do their best to give the United States a very ugly black eye.

★ The Doctor Says ★

Common Sense Treatment Will Aid Strained Heart

By HAROLD T. HYMAN, M.D.
Written for
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Here are some of the recommendations that may help you convert your anginal attack into a "successful calamity":

Consult your family doctor if you suffer any sort of severe or recurrent chest pain.

Don't raise any objection to the expense of laboratory examinations he may require to distinguish between "false" and "true" anginal seizures.

Don't feel you've been cheated if these examinations fail to show anything wrong with your chest or circulatory system. Rather rejoice as you would if you were acquitted of an unjustified legal charge.

Irrespective of your doctor's findings, don't go behind his back to consult a heart specialist.

This suggestion is a matter of self-interest rather than medical ethics. For, if you've had an anginal attack, you may have later need of urgent medical assistance. You are in a better position to get immediate and efficient medical care if your neighbor-physician is in possession of the consultant's records and recommendations.

Once you've worked out the pattern of your previous anginal attack, learn to regulate your gas pedal and shift into low gear so as to prevent engine knock.

No matter how great the temptation, don't smoke. Tobacco is an acknowledged and proven constrictor of coronary arteries.

For the first few weeks after an attack—or even the suggesttion of an attack—limit your activities to those essential to wage earning or housekeeping.

Later, if you feel fit, cautiously experiment with nonremunerative or nonessential diversions such as strolling for pleasure, gardening, clock golf, horseshoe pitching, quoits, pitching and putting, tennis volleying or fishing.

If you've been accustomed to alcoholic beverages, you may use them medicinally as sedatives, tranquilizers and to induce sleep. Alcohol gently dilates coronary arteries, thus assisting blood flow.

Don't let yourself develop "heart consciousness." Anxiety is as apt to provoke an attack as quickly as climbing stairs.

Don't OVERDOSE with the nitroglycerin tablets or solution your doctor prescribes. Don't use them to "beat the lights" and risk doing something you know you shouldn't attempt.

Try to get relief from an attack through rest alone. If practical, replace the drug with inhalations from a portable oxygen tank.

Operative measures accomplish little more than the normal processes of healing and at greater risk. Just as a dammed stream finds new channels in which to resume its flow, so does circulating blood make its way into tiny side branches of any narrowed or blocked artery.

So great is the healing power of nature that, after 13 years of "common sense" treatment, Drs. Green and Borousch of St. Mary's Hospital in Cincinnati met not a single patient who required surgery to control attacks, return to gainful occupattion or prolong life.

"He'll Probably Get Angry If We Wake Him Up"

Washington News

BY PETER EDSON
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — There's another story behind Arizona Republican Sen. Barry Goldwater's book, "The Conscience of a Conservative," reviewed in this column recently. It has run to 85,000 copies already—far beyond the publisher's dreams.

Man responsible for the book is Clarence Manion, South Bend, Ind., former dean of Notre Dame Law School. More recently he has been vice chairman of "For America," which backed T. Coleman Andrews for president in 1956.

Manion is also counsel for an antiforeign-aid committee and has taken a leading role in other right wing movements.

SOME TIME AGO MANION got the idea that Goldwater's views best expressed the conservative ideal, and should be put in book form.

He approached several publishing houses about issuing it under their own imprint.

There was no manuscript to show. So the promoter was stymied.

In spite of this, he came to Goldwater and signed a contract for the book.

The terms were the usual royalty arrangement of about 10 per cent on sales. Manion paid the senator an advance royalty on his own.

Manion got the manuscript a chapter at a time. Some of it was so far to the right that even Manion questioned it. For instance, Goldwater advocated breaking diplomatic relations with Russia. He insisted that this be left in.

"The idea may be 10 years ahead of the times," Goldwater said, "but we may live to see the day when we do it."

WHAT RESULTED is 100-proof Goldwater.

If it was to do any good in this campaign it had to be put out in a hurry.

About a year and a half earlier, Manion had organized a Victor Publishing Co., incorporated in Indiana, to bring out some of his own writings.

Victor's type setting and presswork had been done by Publisher's Printing Co. at its Shepherdsville, Ky., plant outside Louisville. So Manion turned the manuscript over to this company for a rush job. "The Conscience of a Conservative" shows no union label.

The first 500 copies were flown to the South Carolina Republican state convention 24 hours before Goldwater delivered its keynote address. The convention pledged its 13 delegates to Goldwater.

The GOP state convention in Arizona — Goldwater's home state—has pledged its 17 delegates to him.

On June 2, Goldwater keynotes the Minnesota convention at Minneapolis. He might pick up a few more delegates there and elsewhere along the way.

First run on the Goldwater book was 5,000 copies.

Before that was completed, orders were so good that a second printing of 10,000 was run. Next edition was 20,000. A 50,000-copy edition is now on the press.

CORPORATIONS AND INDIVIDUALS are ordering in quantity—at the usual publishers' discount — for distribution among employes or friends.

Much or nothing may come of this.

The shellacking which Clifford Case handed Robert Morris in New Jersey's Republican senatorial primary makes the conservative outlook dim. Right-wing organizations had put a lot of money and effort into unseating "Eisenhower Republican" Case.

Also, it has always been impossible to get conservative Hobby-horse riders united for anything resembling a cavalry charge to save Miss Liberty from the Indians. Manion recognizes this.

But he says:

"Many people have been saying Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York would fill a vacuum at the Chicago convention. People on the other side have a vacuum to fill, too. And we might have some fun."

Today in National Affairs

Race Issue Fades Away In a Southern Graveyard

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—The day of a Washington correspondent is not always the same. It requires no event of national or international significance to teach a lesson. For, as Thomas Gray wrote in his famous elegy, truth is often to be found "far from the madding crowd's ignoble strife."

It took the greater part of the day to get there and back—to a little church in the hills of Virginia where were gathered the family and friends of Jim Taylor, a Negro who died last Friday at the age of seventy-four. Until retirement two years ago, he had worked for fifteen years on the farm where this writer lives in Virginia. To the outside world this fine man may be like millions of others—a good Christian whose kindliness of nature and simple ways earned for him the respect and esteem of all who knew him.

As the eulogies were spoken by the two Baptist preachers, who took turns explaining to the anguished wife and children what the passing meant, there came to mind a contrast. Only yesterday, a useless man was put to death in a gas chamber in California. Around the world the editorials denounced America and our system of justice. British newspapers particularly complained with a scathing bitterness that America had been inhumane.

There came to mind, too, the "inhumane penalty" paid over the last twelve years by the seventeen-year-old girl sexually assaulted by Caryl Chessman. She still is in a mental institution and may spend the rest of her life there.

The simple words of the preachers in the Virginia church expressed nobly the facts of life and death as they concerned a good man, a useful man, a conscientious and honest worker. But the Jim Taylors never make the headlines.

One preacher told what it meant to be a Christian. He said he was riding in his car the other day when he noticed some one beckoning on the side of the road. He stopped and found an auto in need of a tow. Though headed in another direction, he helped out, and a half-hour later, on his way back to his original destination, a tire on his own car went flat. He also sought help on the lonely highway, and some one came to his aid. This, he pointed out, was God's way of recompense to those who perform good deeds in His name.

What impressed this writer was the naturalness and sincerity of the service. Messages of sympathy from friends were read aloud. Spiritual hymns were sung. Readings from the scriptures were explained with interpolations that every one could understand. It was more than an hour of intimate and informal contact between the pulpit and the mourners — something this writer had never before witnessed.

There were perhaps forty persons in the little church. I asked a southern Senator on Capitol Hill whether in the South attendance by white persons at such services was frequent. He said it often happened and that there was a deeper feeling of friendship for individual Negroes than might be generally supposed from reading the emotional outbursts in the North in recent months about the segregation controversy.

What really is this friendly feeling for the Negro? As one reads the intemperate comments about "racism," there comes the disheartening feeling that many things are said in anger that are regrettable. For the true Southerner does care about the Negro. Talking with many people from the South, one finds that they have throughout their lives felt closer to individual Negroes than is generally believed.

It is true that this is sometimes scorned as a "master-and-servant" relationship. But the deep-seated feeling, the willingness to help when sickness and trouble come, the benevolence that reaches out long after the worker has gone to another city or to another task—this could hardly be predicated alone on a "master-and-servant" concept.

The other day, when news came of Jim Taylor's death, a white lady in the neighborhood, who had known him for years, burst into tears. I watched her cry. She had been born and raised in the South.

Human friendship knows no color line. Those who are striving to see reason rather than emotion applied to the maintenance of social customs and individual rights and ways of living have never allowed their feeling for persons of a different race to be marred by the exhibitionists who want to repeal the normal laws of association and thus, unwittingly bring about more instead of less friction.

The epitaph of Jim Taylor in this country churchyard, as Gray wrote, may "implore the passing tribute of a sigh," and could be inscribed in these words:

"Here rests his head upon the lap of earth
"A man to fortune and to fame unknown;
"Fair science frown'd not on his humble birth,
"And friendship marked him for her own. . . .
"He gave to mis'ry all he had, a tear,
"He gained from heav'n (t'was all he wish'd) a friend."

BOOK REVIEW

To further increase interest in the Kingston Library the following review by Mrs. G. Cramer Dodge is published.

ADVISE AND CONSENT
By Allen Drury

This book throws a blinding light upon the Washington scene, particularly the United States Senate. Written by a brilliant Washington newspaper correspondent, who can and does speak with authority, it answers many questions about who really runs our Government.

There are four divisions in the book dealing with four highly successful incorruptible senators. Great men, doing their best for the country which they love.

As the story opens, announcement has just been made of the President's appointment of Bob Leffingwell as Secretary of State. It is a highly controversial choice and Bob Munson, senior senator from Michigan and as Majority Leader obliged to follow the President's policies promptly starts to rally support for Leffingwell. He is an attractive widower of 57 who can charm most of his fellow-senators into doing as he wishes.

Fortunately the news broke on the eve of Dolly Harrison's spring party—one of the largest and most popular in the Washington season. Dolly had come to Washington after her divorce, bought "Vagaries" a beautiful estate, and proceeded to become one of the most popular hostesses in Washington. The spring party consisted of 300 guests—senators, big brass, diplomats, press, socialites, etc. A glittering gathering which consumed, according to the caterers, 100 gallons of Bourbon, 57 gallons of Scotch, 200 gallons of ginger ale and soda, 500 pounds of ice and about $5,000 worth of hors d'oeuvres, turkey, chicken, celery, olives, salads and marron glaces. Dolly knew how to entertain.

Bob Munson made political hay among his fellow-senators for Leffingwell's confirmation. He also had a quiet little meeting in Dolly's study with a few senators and a few diplomats whose governments had a stake in this appointment because of the dangerous gains made by the Communistic countries, and allowed himself the pleasure of insulting the Soviet ambassador. Also Dolly left the backdoor unlocked for Bob. Everyone knew of their attachment and hoped they would marry. More about that much later in the book.

The second book about the senior Senator, Seabright Cooley, from South Carolina and his long career in the Senate is most interesting. "Seab," now 75 years old is a dominating figure in the Senate. He is unalterably opposed to Leffingwell's nomination and uses his own clever means of unearthing something damaging in his past. He then holds that information until just the right time to explode it. "Seab" appears to be a gentle soul but his fellow-senators know better than to cross wits with him.

In the third book, this bit of scandal is relayed by a voice from the past to Brigham Anderson, young, brilliant senior Senator from Utah. Brig feels obliged to tell the President. From somewhere a small bit of a scandal in Brig Anderson's past is relayed to the President, who passes it on to the Senate's bad boy, Fred Van Ackerman, who uses it to blackmail Brig through his wife. Brig couldn't take it. He shot himself.

The last, and most dramatic is the story of Orrin Knox, senior Senator of Illinois. Things come to a head about the nomination. The vote to refuse to advise and consent is overwhelming, partly influenced by Brig Anderson's tragedy. Orrin Knox is sorely tempted and finds himself unable to resist the chance to be the next President and finds cause to appreciate more than ever his, beloved wife. A President dies and a Vice President grows up overnight to assume office very competently. An insolent message from the Soviet Union is flung back in her face. Even a blase' press pays tribute to these defenders of and believers in America's inherent greatness.

Of great interest are Senate debates and procedures. There are many fiery debates between "esteemed colleagues" and back room horse-trading in committee rooms generally resulting in the best solution of various measures. After all, a good Senator is first a patriot and second a superb politician. The "smoke-filled" committee rooms are more than a phrase. They are the greatest single force which runs our government. The American people may as well know it.

Partners Win Points Too

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

One of the first things an aspiring bridge player should learn is that he gets just as many points when his partner plays and makes a hand as when he himself is the declarer. In line with that discovery he should learn that any time his partner bids a heart or a spade and he can raise him he should do so right away.

Now look at the North hand. Your partner opens one heart and you have one of these balanced hands with three hearts to the queen and a side ace and king. Nine points and no ruffing power and if you are the hand hog type you will probably respond one no-trump.

If you do, your partner is going to rebid two hearts and you will be faced with a real problem. You won't know whether to pass or to raise him to three hearts.

Now look what happens if you give that immediate heart raise. Your partner will look over his hand happily and jump right to game. He will still have that same 14 points in high cards he started with, but the raise will have solidified his trump suit for him and he will expect to have an easy time with the game contract.

His expectations will be realized. With a spade opening he will wrap up five-odd. His jack of spades will win the first trick and he will lose only one trump and one club. With any other lead he may make only 10 tricks, but in any case your partnership will have your game bid and made.

Korean Vets Are Told of Options On GI Policies

27,000 New York State Korean conflict veterans have the right to convert their previously nonconvertible term GI insurance to permanent GI policies Charles L. Culver, counselor of the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs and John B. Tyler, director of the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency announced today.

The affected term GI policies they explained are indentifiable by the letters "RS" which precede the policy numbers. Despite the fact that the policies say they are "non-convertible," a Federal law now permits conversion or exchange. The statute provides the thousands of "RS" policyholders with three options;

To convert their "RS" term policies to permanent plans of GI insurance.

To exchange their "RS" term policies for a "limited Convertible" term policy carrying a lower premium rate, but which — after September 1, 1960—cannot be renewed by persons who have passed their 50th birthday.

To keep their "RS" term policies at the currently established premium rates, which increase every five years.

The maximum amount of the new-type insurance is limited in each case by the face amount of the veterans' present "RS" policy.

Culver and Tyler listed the types of permanent insurance available under the law as: ordinary life, 20-pay life, 30-pay life, 20-year endowment, endowment at age 60, and endowment at age 65.

The new type policies — like the "RS" policies they may replace — do not yield dividends.

Only "RS" policyholders are affected by this law. It does not reopen GI insurance.

Culved and Tyler urged Korean veterans affected by this change to visit their office located at 32 Main Street, Kingston, for complete information on policy changes, or any of the branch offices in Ellenville, Highland, Kerhonkson and Saugerties.

Burroughs Cabin Will Be Open to Public Saturday

Slabsides at West Park, will be open to the public Saturday, from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m. This is the rustic cabin which the famous naturalist John Burroughs built in 1895 and where he entertained many guests, including such notables as Henry Ford, John Muir and Theodore Roosevelt when President of the United States.

The cabin with the furnishings he made himself has been kept as he left it as a memorial to him. There are pictures and personal mementoes. The John Burroughs Association, which owns the building, holds two meetings here a year, and the May 7 meeting is the first for 1960.

At 11 a. m., there will be a talk on Slabsides by his granddaughter, Elizabeth Burroughs Kelley. Henry Dunbar of the John Burroughs Natural History Society will speak on the wild flowers of this area which are mentioned by the naturalist in his writings.

Visitors may attend the meeting. They may bring their lunch and accompany the members on a nature-walk which will start from the cabin about 1 p. m.

To reach Slabsides, visitors will turn west from Route 9W at West Park and follow the paved road across the railroad tracks and up to the top of the hill. They may park near the Burroughs Drive sign and walk the rest of the way to the cabin, about a half mile, following the unpaved road through the woods. There is parking space for only one car by the cabin. Slabsides will be open May 7 rain or shine.

President Shifts Security Meeting To Secret Sector

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower shifted a session of the National Security Council to a secret place outside of Washington today without advance notice even to the top-level national strategy planners themselves.

The move was part of the Operation Alert practice exercise for any future emergency.

The White House said Eisenhower was unaware at the time of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's claim in a speech to the Supreme Soviet in Moscow that the Soviet Union had shot down an American plane last weekend. Word was relayed immediately to Eisenhower and his security advisers.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the NSC meeting "had nothing to do with the Khrushchev speech." He said it was planned some time ago in connection with Operation Alert.

Eisenhower himself flew out by helicopter from the White House grounds at 7:30 a.m.

The other members of the council were following, also by helicopter. The White House said they got their first word of the shift by telephone about 7 a.m. A regular weekly session of the group had been scheduled for 9 a.m.

The council, headed by the President, includes Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates Jr., and Leo A. Hoegh, director of the Office of Civil and Defense Moblization.

The group, whose deliberations are among the most secret activities in the capital, has the task of correlating the nation's defense diplomatic and domestic activity policies.

Police Are Trying To Identify Body

Poughkeepsie police today were endeavoring to identify the body of a man found floating in the Hudson River about 75 feet off the Cornell boathouse by Richard King, crew coach at Roosevelt Central High School.

Lieut. Gilbert Bailey told The Freeman efforts were being made by detectives to determine whether the decomposed body was Louis Nameth Sr., 51, of 27 William Street, who disappeared on April 14. Police said a boy found some clothing and a wallet on the east shore of the river near the Poughkeepsie waterworks on April 15.

The missing man's wife identified the clothes and wallet as belonging to her husband. Nameth's sister-in-law, Mrs. Anna Rose, of Hyde Park, notified police on April 17, that she and a niece, Mrs. Jean Iapichino, of 92 Washington Street, found Nameth's underwear and socks on a dock near the Cornell boathouse.

Coach King found the body shortly before 5 p. m. Wednesday and immediately notified authorities. Detectives Edward McLaughlin and Frank O'Shea made preliminary investigation and Detective Roland Massie took fingerprints of the drowned man. The body was ordered removed to the Dowling Funeral Home on Fairview Avenue.

Nameth's son, Louis Nameth Jr., 23, a soldier stationed in Korea returned home on a 40-day furlough after he was notified of the disappearance of his father.

300 Are Laid Off

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Three hundred production and maintenance workers have been laid off at the Sanderson-Halcomb works of Crucible Steel because of slow business, the company said today.

The layoffs will continue indefinitely until orders pick up, C. Paul Dye, manager of employment relations, said.

An additional 25 workers are expected to be furloughed Friday and from 20 to 25 men in subsequent weeks, he said.

Henry D'Agostino, president of Local 1277 of the United Steelworkers Union, said the layoffs had cut the work force from 2,800 to 2,500.

Khrush Says

type of plane, the number aboard or fate of the fliers.

The deputies in the Supreme Soviet applauded Khrushchev's prediction that chances of success at the summit have been dimmed by the attitude of the Western Allies. Khrushchev said the governments of the United States, Britain and France do not seem to be looking forward to settlement of outstanding cold war issues.

"This dims the chances of success at the talks," Khrushchev said.

Describing what he presented as events leading up to the plane incident, Khrushchev said an American plane crossed into Soviet territory from the Afghan border April 9 and the Soviet Union took no action.

"Apparently the Americans liked the fact that they made this incursion and were not punished," the Premier said. "On the first of May at 5:36 a.m. an American plane crossed the border into our territory. The order was given to shoot down the invader. This order was fulfilled and the plane was shot down.

Markings Painted Out

"It appeared that the plane was American, although the markings were painted out."

Deputies shouted, "Down with the aggressor!" and "It's direct banditry!"

Khrushchev added that "a strict protest will be made and we will inform them that we have the right to take any measure necessary for the defense of our country."

Shakes Up Command

Khrushchev's attack on the West capped a day which brought announcement of a shakeup in the ruling hierarchy, a promise by Khrushchev to abolish income taxes by the end of 1965 and an announcement which amounted to a revaluation of the ruble effective in October.

The party and government shakeup brought Khrushchev's protege, Frol Kozlov, up from a deputy first premiership in the Council of Ministers to a top Communist party job under Khrushchev himself. Kozlov, 51, became a secretary of the party Central Committee in a general reorganization. Kozlov toured the United States last year.

Raises Value of Ruble

With regard to the ruble Khrushchev said its gold value will be raised 10 times. New currency will be issued for which old rubles will be exchanged 10 to 1. This would tend to put the ruble on a par with the U.S. dollar, since the tourist rate of the ruble now is 10 to the dollar.

Khrushchev's new tax program envisions raising the take-home pay of Soviet workers by 74 billion rubles (7.4 billion dollars) a year.

The Soviet Premier said that by 1965 workers would be progressively exempted from the income tax until it was abolished for all factory and office workers making up to 2,000 rubles ($200) a month.

Taxes, Wages Lower

Taxes also will be abolished for workers making more, but their wages will be reduced accordingly.

Income taxes also will be abolished for single persons and those with small families, regardless of the size of their wages, the Premier said.

Khrushchev said that as a result of the tax program the cash wages of 59,400,000 persons would be increased by the entire amount of their present tax; the wages of several million will increase by an average of half their tax and only the wages of "an insignificant number of workers will remain unchanged."

Completes Visit

John A. Iapoce, airman recruit, USN, ward of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Iapoce of Church Street, Phoenicia, completed a 15-day visit to Naples, Italy, April 29, while serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Franklin D. Roosevelt operating with the U. S. Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

Naples was the sixth port of call for the Roosevelt and her crew since they began their overseas deployment.

Side trips to Rome, Capri, Vesuvius and Pompeii were made by many crew members.

Hyde Park School Budget Defeated, $179,607 Higher

Voters in the Hyde Park Central School district have defeated a gross budget totaling $2,179,110, an increase of $179,607 above this year's budget of $1,999,502. The Tuesday vote was, "yes" 398; "no" 553.

At the annual meeting of taxpayers last night, the Board of Education was requested to resubmit the gross budget in its entirety in the near future. No decision was reached by the board, but it is expected the budget will be discussed at a regular meeting on Tuesday, May 10.

If the budget had been approved approximately $970,635 would have been raised by taxes, an increase in the tax levy of $202,576 above this year's total of $768,059.

Elected members of the school board were Richard Horton, who defeated Dura Sweeney by a vote of 491 to 405, and William Young, who polled 348 votes against 367 for Nathaniel Wagner and 130 for Ralph Critelli.

Katrine Driver Is Charged With Leaving Accident

A man charged with leaving the scene of an accident after his car rammed a fire hydrant in Port Ewen early Sunday morning was arrested Wednesday night by Deputy Sheriffs Peter and Robert Peterson.

Noel Philip Stanley, 21, of Carle Terrace, Lake Katrine, was picked up folowing a three-day investigation.

It all began when a car smashed into a hydrant on Clay road on Sunday morning. The Ulster County sheriff's office was notified at 2:42 a. m. Deputies were dispatched to the scene. They succeeded in tracking the vehicle as far as New Salem but lost the trail there.

Deputy Sheriffs Peter and Robert Peterson continued the investigation, checking area garages and junk yards and asking their cooperation.

The investigation led to a heavily wooded area on Chapel Street where a car was found parked, its front wheels removed.

The license plates had been detached and put on another car, a 1952 sedan.

Stanley reportedly admitted that the car found in the woods was the one which struck the hydrant.

The hydrant was broken off, water flooding the area. The car then struck a concrete culvert before continuing.

Stanley was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Allan S. Dargie of the Town of Esopus and was committed to the Ulster County Jail. He was released this morning in $100 bail pending a hearing at 7 p. m. Monday, May 9, before Judge Dargie.

Local Youngsters Cited for School Safety Unit Duty

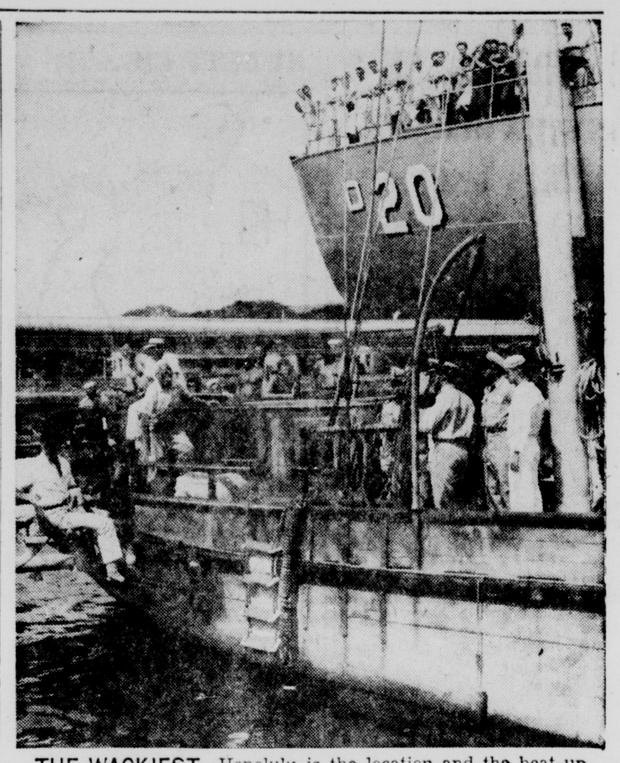

Four local youngsters have been named to receive distinguished service medals of the Automobile Club of New York for their outstanding service as members of School Safety Patrols, it was announced today.

They are: Lionel Coddington, 109 Hunter Street, Kingston, a student at School No. 2; Robert William Hanley, 244 Bowne Street, Port Ewen, Immaculate Conception School; John Sexton, Ulster Park, St. Peter's School, Rosendale, and Wesley VanVliet, Plattekill Avenue, New Paltz, Campus School.

The medals are being awarded for "exceptional alertness and attention to duty" in safeguarding their schoolmates at school crossings and will be presented at school assemblies. The ceremonies are part of the statewide observance of School Safety Patrol Week proclaimed for the period from May 9 to May 15 by Governor Rockefeller.

The automobile club organized the first school safety patrols in the metropolitan area in 1926. In their 34 years, despite a 177 per cent increase in motor vehicle registration, the patrols have been able to reduce traffic fatalities to school-age children in the state by 76 per cent.

More than 25,000 patrol members now stand on duty at school crossings in the metropolitan area.

Farm Sales From NY Institutions Realize $512,476

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The state made $512,476 from sale of livestock and farm equipment at nine state institutions where farming operations have been ended, Gov. Rockefeller reported today.

Rockefeller abolished the farms when it was determined the state could purchase food for the institutions for $700,000 a year less than it was costing to grow it.

The governor said the farms were established originally to provide therapy for persons in state institutions as well as to provide an economical source of food.

But mental institutions no longer consider agriculture work proper therapy and full-time farm workers have been employed to operate many farms.

As a result, Rockefeller said, it was costing the state $1,800,000 a year to raise food it could buy for $1,100,000.

The livestock and equipment at the farms was auctioned off during March and April.

A study is now under way to determine whether the state has any further use for the farmland. If not, it will be sold.

The state has offered to lease the land for one year, pending completion of the study.

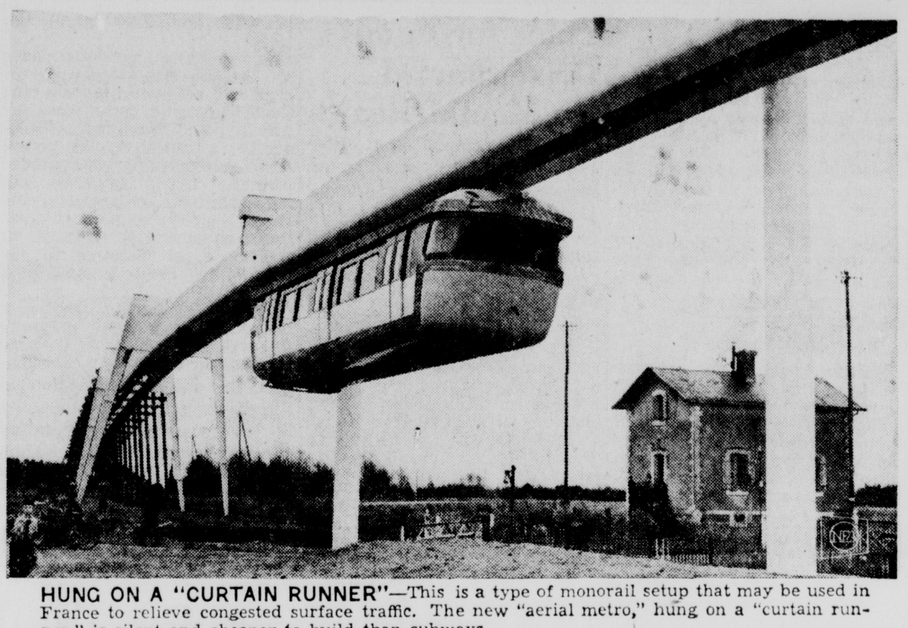

The land is at Binghamton, St. Lawrence, Hudson River and Harlem Valley state hospitals, Wassaic State School and Letchworth Village, all operated by the Mental Hygiene Department; Auburn State Prison, the Warwick Training School for Boys and the veterans rest camp at Mount Mc Gregor.

The auction realized a total of $346,814 for livestock and $165,662 for equipment.

Dairy cattle sold included a purebred Ayrshire herd at Mt. Mc Gregor. The rest camp there is being closed and the facilities will be converted for use as a children's annex of Rome State School.

Fears Bottle-Neck

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lt. Gen. E. C. Itschner, chief of Army Engineers, thinks the St. Lawrence Seaway may some day be a bottle-neck to shipping between the Great Lakes and the Atlantic Ocean.

But in testimony made public today by a House appropriations subcommittee, Itschner said a greater potential bottleneck is the Welland Canal connecting Lakes Ontario and Erie.

He attributed delays at the Welland Canal during the early part of last year's shipping season to inexperience. But he noted that the Army Engineers are preparing a survey to determine the feasibility of constructing an American canal between the two lakes.

Do You Remember by Sophie Miller

Received an interesting card from Hollywood, Calif., of the Sands Sunset Hotel on Sunset Boulevard. Its from Sam, Helen and Adele Mann. She writes in part: "This place reminds me of Woodstock in a big way. You see many people in costumes on the streets. Everyone acts on the streets, so no doubt some producer will discover them. Its a beautiful city. Seamon Jacobs, of Kingston has been wonderful to us etc." Seamon is connected in show business there so no doubt the Manns have seen the inside of Hollywood theatrical world. I remember when Woodstock girls wore those as we called them, "Woodstock dresses" known to others as peasant dresses, long, wide skirts, and very colorful, now it seems its shorts and trousers or slacks for everybody.

No doubt many of the readers of this column say, "What again!" when I mention the Jan. 4, 1800 Ulster County Gazette which is found across the nation all the time. When readers ask me about items they may have, and say, "What is it worth!" All I can say, "All you can get, if you find a customer interested." Recently I saw in one of the New York City newspapers, a writeup of a coming auction at the Whitman's Auction Rooms in Flushing, Queens, and among the articles to go on the block, was a "framed newspaper dated Jan. 4, 1800—that reported the death of George Washington on Dec. 14, 1799." I took it for granted that it was our famous Ulster County Gazette, printed right here in Kingston, so I wrote to the galleries, enclosing a postal card for answer.

I wanted to know, what is was sold for and who bought it. I know that various times readers ask me what the Gazette is worth. This gazette was sold for $50 to a man in Roslyn. That of course does not mean that one can get $50 for every copy with that date on it. It no doubt was properly framed, and in excellent condition, and of interest to the buyer to pay $50.

Poor Samuel Freer, the publisher, who I understand died broke, if he only knew that some 160 years later, one copy of his would go for that amount. As I have said before, for everything there is a customer, if one can find him, and this auction sale did.

Here is an item from Kingston Argus, of Wednesday, Decembe 4, 1889. "Charles E. Hamblen died at Spokane Falls, Washington Territory, on Saturday. He came to Kingston from Cape Cod in 1867, and was bookkeeper for the Cornell Steamboat Company from that year until 1877, when he removed to Minneapolis, Minn., and engaged in business with the Coykendall Brothers.

About two years ago, Mr. Hamblen went to Spokane Falls, where he followed the real estate line. Mr. Hamblen, a Union soldier, he was 49 years old, and leaves a wife and four children."

An item which was attracting attention in Kingston in 1889 was the Edison Phonograph, then on exhibition at the middle store, Crosby Building, Kingston. (The latest type the same used at the Paris Exposition, and Electric Motor, run by electric storage battery.) item explained. Admission to this exhibit was 25 cents. William F. Stocker, was the manager. I wonder what the Kingstonians of 1889 would think of TV and cablevision, and what will Kingstonians see 75 years hence, is what worries me.

His Theory

Malthus, from whom we get the term, "Malthusian theory," claimed that there will always be more people in the world than can be fed, and that wars and disease will be necessary to kill off the extra population.

Plans for Fund Drive Started On Mental Health

The first annual fund drive meeting for city and county leaders for the Ulster County Association for Mental Health was held at the Governor Clinton Hotel Monday. Mrs. Frieda L. Dingee, vice president of the association and county drive chairman, presided.

Mrs. Dingee announced the appointment of Bernard A. Feeney Jr. as city chairman. Attorney Feeney resides with his wife and son, Bernard A. Feeney 3rd, at 33-A Miller's Lane. He is a graduate of Fordham University and Albany Law School and has practiced law in Kingston since 1953.

A film "The Key" was shown at the meeting depicting the problems of mental illness and the necessity of funds, both for research and treatment. Strides are being made today in the use of drugs reducing the stay of the mentally ill in hospitals but much remains to be done, particularly at the community level. Research and the methods of treatment are pointing to the need of treatment centers on a local level.

It has been found that general hospitals can treat the mentally ill successfully by using the new tranquilizer drugs. Day care centers are another innovation in the treatment of the mentally ill. These are psychologist staffed clinics where care is given during the day and the patient returns home in the evening. This method is proving increasingly satisfactory both as to the incidence of cure and the reduction of mental hospitals with sleeping facilities.

Ulster County residents are urged to make their customary contributions when the Fund raising solicitors visit.

Heavy Production

A century ago, wallpaper was printed from handcut wood blocks, with as many as 1,000 per design. Today's modern factory processes in the U. S. alone produce enough wallpaper in one day to paper 1,000 houses.

Population density is 500 persons or more per square mile in Britain, Belgium, Germany, the Netherlands and Japan.

Ulster Hose Carnival Will Open on Monday

A carnival is returning here for its 19th season to play from Monday, May 9 through the 14th.

It is the Continental Shows of Lowell, Mass., which will feature its giant midway, rides, games of skill, and entertainment.

This year it is playing under the sponsorship of Ulster Hose No. 5 at a lot where Route 9W and the Neighborhood Road join.

"We are using the new locale," a spokesman for the shows said, "because of the sale of our former lot." He added, "there will be plenty of parking space."

Opening time is 7 p. m., with a special children's matinee Saturday, May 14, at 1 p. m.

The hose company sponsors the show to raise funds for its various projects.

Apology Squares Things

PLATTSBURGH, N. Y. (AP)—Bernard O. Babbie, 33, a brush salesman, was annoyed by a "No Peddlers Allowed" sign.

He wrote the householder, Charles R. Cook, "If you don't like America's free enterprise, go back to the old country," and taped the note to Cook's door.

Later, Babbie was arrested under a city ordinance that forbids pasting signs and advertisements to a house.

Babbie apologized to Cook and the charge was dropped.

Clemency for Three Men Up to Governor

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The fates of a convicted rapist and two men sentenced to death for a robbery - shooting was in Gov. Rockefeller's hands today.

Rockefeller heard clemency pleas Wednesday for the three men, who are scheduled to die in the Sing Sing Prison electric chair this month for murder.

The governor will announce his decision only if he grants clemency or stays an execution.

The hearings, conducted against the background of the Caryl Chessman case, were for Pablo Vargas, 35, of New York City and Henry Flakes and Walter T. Green, both of Buffalo.

The death of convicted rapist Chessman in California's gas chamber set off international debate over capital punishment.

Vargas was convicted in the rape-strangling of Lillian Mojica, a high school student, in 1958. He is scheduled to die May 12.

Flakes and Green, 33, were convicted in a clothing store holdup in Lackawanna, in which Joseph Friedman was killed. They are to die May 19.

Fire Sweeps Center

NEW HARTFORD, N. Y. (AP) —Fire began in a shoe store and swept through seven units of a large suburban shopping center Wednesday night.

Flames damaged and destroyed sections of the adjoining units, which included Sears Roebuck & Co., Neisner, and a branch of Marine Midland.

DISCUSS STATE CONVENTION — The various phases and arrangements of the 1960 Marine Corps League state convention to be held in Kingston July 13 to 17, were discussed at a recent committee meeting. Participating in the planning session were (l-r) John Ray Mayone, convention chairman; Robert Heaney, Ulster Detachment, commandant and Edward Whalen, in charge of the Additional Plans For Marine Corps Parley Announced

Additional plans and the various phases of the four-day Marine Corps League state convention to be held in Kingston July 13 to 17 were announced today by Robert Heaney, commandant of Ulster Detachment.

The annual session will bring together Marine Corp Leaguers and their Auxiliaries from all over the state. John Ray Mayone, convention chairman said the enormity of the project is illustrated by the fact that direct mail promotional material is forwarded regularly to more than 1,000 members in the form of a "Convention Newsletter."

The convention committee is composed of Albert F. Trowbridge, reservations; Gilbert Gray; activities and Devil Dog Liaison; Valmore F. Carpenter, registration; Edward Whalen, rifle match; Harold Dohnken and John Atkins, fund raising; Harold De Graff, finance; Richard Griggs, program; Albert Baltz, reception; Harold E. Macholdt, Liaison.

The first phase of convention activity will be held several weeks prior to convention time. This is the rifle match under the direction of Whalen and Baltz. An official NRA match will be presented for large and small bore rifle and pistol.

It will be held at the Karner Range, Colonie, June 18 and 19. Chairman Edward Whalen announced that this match is open state-wide for Marine Corps League participation. Advance literature has been mailed to all units.

Ulster Detachment Rifle Team, under Whalen, host of this match, will participate against the other units. Whalen announced that in the future several other matches will be held against local teams as well as his team participating in other parts of New York and other states.

Convention Chairman Mayone announced that his committee is endeavoring to bring the families of delegates to Kingston. Advance information is being sent to each Marine member urging him to bring the wife and children, and much planning has gone into the activities for the family groups, including various tours, picnics, fashion show, and other activities.

The culmination of the four-day convention schedule of business meetings, state elections, services, will be the banquet and military ball to be held Saturday evening, July 16, at Governor Clinton Hotel, convention headquarters.

Chairman Mayone announced that he has written to Lee Marvin of television and movie fame, inviting him to appear at this ball. Marine Marvin, the star of TV's "M-Squad" is a native of Bearsville and a former member of Ulster Detachment, having participated in the Marine drill teams which appeared in Kingston parades in 1946 and 1947. Plans are also being made to bring a high ranking Marine Corps officer here to be the principal speaker at the convention's general meeting.

Plans are also being made to welcome the Devil Dogs, the fun-making unit of the MCL. Convention time is when it stages its initiations for new "Pups." Their meetings begin at 12 midnight and, from all reports, extend into the early morning hours.

$865 to Kiwanis From Gumballs Reuner Reports

A total of $865.23 was received from the gumball machines sponsored by the Kingston Kiwanis Club during the year 1959.

This total was revealed by Herbert H. Reuner, chairman of the Kiwanis gum machine committee, who pointed out that the project enabled the local service club to continue its program of aid to youngsters in the community.

Chairman Reuner listed the following projects sustained by the various committees of the Kiwanis Club through the medium of receipts from the gum ball machines:

Babe Ruth League sponsored baseball team, Biddy Basketball League sponsored team, Cerebral Palsy Center activities, YMCA camp fund and party donations, Community Chest contributions, Boy Scout tent fund aid; Salvation Army Christmas fund, drama scholarship for interested student, Children's Home donation, Volunteers of America Christmas baskets and rowboats for the Girl Scout camp.

Ridge Men Attend Midrox Fire Co-op Meeting Tuesday

Among the directors and agents of the Midrox Cooperative Fire Insurance Company who attended the annual meeting Tuesday at Roxbury were Vernon A. Barnhart of Stone Ridge, S. Robert Kelder of Stone Ridge, Charles W. Triolo of Grand Gorge, Willard F. Sanford of Margaretville, W. Bruce Hull of Grand Gorge, Harrison C. Morse of Roxbury, J. M. Mabe of Andes and other agents from the counties of Delaware, Greene, Otsego, Schoharie and Ulster where the company writes insurance.

The meeting was well attended by policy holders of the company. Officers elected for the coming year were Lindon B. Morse, president; Alex S. Mable of Delhi, vice-president; Harrison C. Morse of Roxbury, secretary and treasurer.

Directors whose term of office expired this year and were re-elected include: Ralph O. Faulkner, New Kingston; Nelson B. Kelly, Halcottsville; Alex B. Mable, Delhi; Lindon B. Morse, Roxbury; Raymond Traver, Prattsville and Kenneth Kelson, East Meredith.

The report of the secretary-treasurer showed an increase of insurance in force as well as an increase in gross assets. Though the company paid the largest amount to policyholders for losses for any fiscal year since the company was organized in 1936, the directors voted to effect a decrease in assessments by an average reduced rate, the result being that approximately $10,000 will be returned to policyholders through reduced assessments this year.

The home office of the company is at Roxbury.

India Missionary Speaks at Rotary

The work of a missionary in India was portrayed to the Kingston Rotary Club at its luncheon-meeting Wednesday by the Rev. Dr. John J. deValois, director of the Katpadic Agricultural Mission of Vellore, South India. The mission is under the sponsorship of the Reformed Church of America. The Rev. Harold F. Schadewald, pastor of the Hurley Reformed Church, a representative of the Classis of Ulster, also was a guest of the local service club. The Rev. J. Dean Dykstra introduced the speaker.

Dr. deValois, a native of Michigan who is on leave in this country, spent the past 40 years in missionary work in India. He gave a first-hand account of the progress of the work of the Christian missions in the fields of agriculture, medicine, education and welfare. The country is essentially agriculture.

A charter member and past president of the Vellore Rotary Club, Dr. deValois cited as one example of the fulfillment of the Rotary mottoes, "Service Above Self" and "He Profits Most Who Serves Best", the support by the Rotary Club there of a colony of lepers.

Vellore is a city of 150,000 and there are some 50 members in the Rotary Club. Organized in 1949, it was one of the first to be organized in India. Today there are 200 clubs there. These clubs recently staged an all-Rotary conference in New Delhi. There are many languages, but English is universal.

India has been granted complete independence and he said the people appreciate the Republican form of government.

Fehmer "Chic" Chandler, who has established a brilliant career as a stage, screen and television actor, was among the guests at the luncheon. He was presented by his father, Colonel Chandler.

The annual Rotary dinner-dance will be held Saturday, June 4 at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

The annual chicken barbecue will be staged by the Rotary Club on Saturday, August 13.

CYO Notes

County Director Leo A. Schupp announced that this year's CYO baseball and softball programs will include the following leagues, softball for girls with the elementary and intermediate leagues; baseball from Pee Wee League for boys from 8 to 12 years; elementary school; midget and junior leagues.

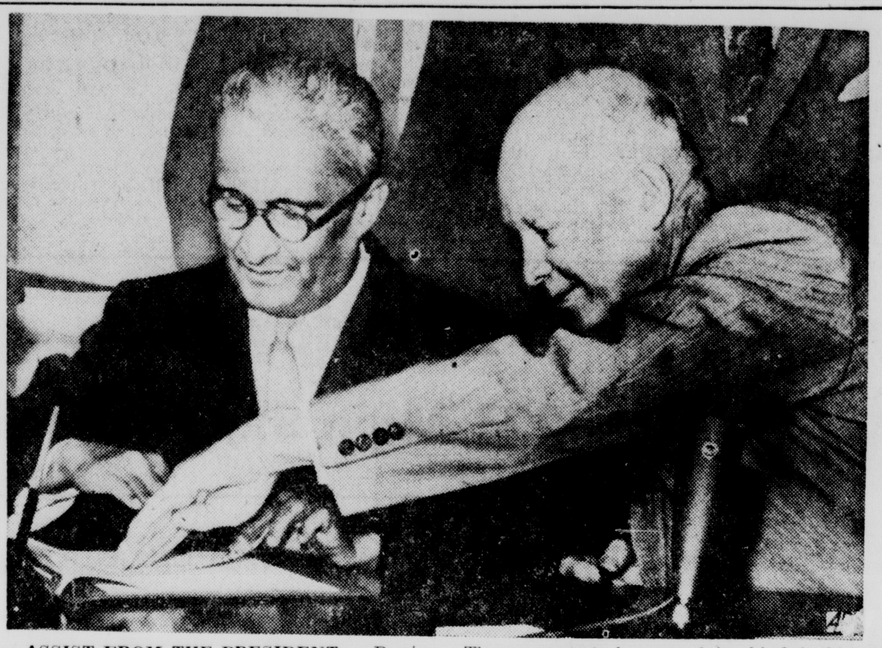

The girl's program under the direction of Miss Mary Leach, athletic chairman, is now under way. All of the boys leagues will commence shortly under the direction of William T. Mahoney, boys athletic chairman.

Director Schupp also announced that the elementary girl's track and field meet would be held on Saturday, May 14, at Dietz Stadium at 10 a. m. with two classes of participation and seven separate events for each class. Gold and silver CYO medals will be awarded to individual winners and the championship team will be awarded the CYO track trophy. The Father Herdegen Memorial track meet will be run at Dietz Stadium Saturday, May 21, at 1:30 p. m.

It is expected that more than 100 boys representing various parishes throughout the county will be entered in the meet. Events include low hurdles, dashes, relays, broad jumps, high jump shot put and runs. This event is run annually and named in memory of the late Rev. Henry E. Herdegen under whose direction Catholic youth programs were organized in Ulster County. He was CYO's first moderator in the county.

Director Schupp announced that he has available a limited number of free baseball tickets for Yankee home games. Some available dates are June 30, July 2, July 30, August 16, August 31. On June 29, CYO Day will be observed at Yankee Stadium and 5,000 tickets for free distribution have been made available. Groups planning to attend are urged to order their tickets from Director Schupp as soon as possible. All will be distributed on a first come first served basis.

Annual CYO quiz contest will be held at St. Joseph's School, Kingston Saturday, May 14, at 2 p. m. Teams representing all of the parish schools in Ulster County will participate. The public is invited to attend.

Bloomington Vols To Sponsor Fire Drill May 15th

The fifth and final fire drill of the current series held by the Town of Rosendale Volunteer Firemen's Association will be sponsored by Bloomington Fire Co., Inc., Sunday, May 15, at 2 p. m.

Announcement of the drill was made by Fred Sauer, president, during Tuesday night's meeting at the firehouse.

Hahn to Direct

The drill will be held at the Alpine Restaurant, DeWitt Mills and Hurley Road. Participating fire companies will include Rosendale, Tillson, Cottekill and Binnewater, units of which will be summoned on the two-way radio.

The entire exercise will be under the direction of Chief Oscar Hahn of Bloomington.

The exact location of the fire at the Alpine and the part each company is to play in either fighting the blaze, protecting the surrounding buildings or relaying water, is being kept secret until the day of the drill. Chief Hahn has hinted, however, that he has planned a drill requiring close cooperation of all participating companies.

Captain Fred Sauer again plans to be on hand with his motion picture camera to record the action and will later show movies at a town association meeting in order to pinpoint any mistakes.

Announcement was made at last night's meeting that the newly revised telephone emergency cards have been completely distributed in the Bloomington district, including the village of Bloomington, Creek Locks, Eddyville, Maple Hill, Whiteport and Route 32 north to the city line. About 400 cards were given out by the volunteers containing the names and telephone numbers to call in case of a fire or any emergency during the 24-hour period from midnight to midnight.

Supper on May 21

A spaghetti and meat ball supper is planned for Saturday, May 21, at the firehouse in Bloomington under the sponsorship of the Bloomington Fire Co., Inc. Herbert Faurote is chairman of the event, assisted by John Markle, Jurgen Knubben, Harold Nichols, Leslie Every, Joseph Hafner, George Hafner, Albert Schmidt Jr., Kenneth Taylor, Charles Peterson, Oscar Hahn and John Plonski. Dinner will be served from 5 to 9 p. m. and all are invited, proceeds going to the equipment fund of the company.

Bloomington volunteeers are scheduled to participate in three parades during the summer season.

The first will be on Memorial Day in the Town of Rosendale, the second is the Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association march in Monticello Saturday, June 18 and the third will be sponsored by the Ulster County Firemen's Association in July.

Announcement also was made that a meeting of the Ulster County Association is scheduled for June in Bloomington with 125 delegates expected to attend.

Bloomington firemen will start the project of repainting the interior of the firehouse on Saturday. Volunteers available for duty are requested to report to assist with the projects.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chicken, pork and increasing supplies of fresh vegetables make life easier for the budget-conscious shopper in supermarkets and neighborhood groceries this week.

Broilers and fryers are marked down in stores in the East and Midwest, while fryer parts are featured in Southern states. Cuts come to 6 to 8 cents a pound in some areas.

Bargains seem more numerous on the lower priced pork cuts such as smoked picnic hams and smoked butts, although there are scattered offerings, too, of the more expensive hams and canned hams.

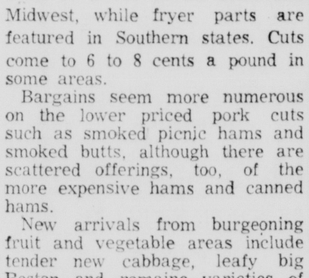

New arrivals from burgeoning fruit and vegetable areas include tender new cabbage, leafy big Boston and romaine varieties of lettuce, Florida watermelons, nearby radishes, green onions and air shipments of California cherries. Some of these items are fairly expensive because supplies are small.

Other meat specials included top round roast of beef, leg of lamb and leg or rump of veal. Veal chops are 4 to 10 cents a pound cheaper in some areas. Beef and lamb show a mixture of plus and minus signs.

Best buys among vegetables are nearby asparagus, topped carrots, pascal celery, green onions, parsley, escarole, iceberg lettuce, peas, small to medium peppers, potatoes, radishes, spinach and watercress.

On the good buy list are artichokes, corn, eggplant, endive, medium yellow onions, sweet potatoes and a wide variety of cooking greens.

Fruit stands once again feature bananas, oranges and grapefruit.

POWER STRUGGLE — A showdown between public and private power advocates is shaping up in the northwest. Brownlee was the first of three dams to be built by the Idaho Power Co., a private concern. All were authorized by the Federal Power Commission after prolonged opposition by those congressmen favoring federal power development. Oxbow Dam will be completed this year. Hells Canyon Dam is in its early stages. The Washington Public Power Supply system has filed for the Nez Perce site. A federal commission okay would assure that some of the Snake River power potential will be publicly rather than privately controlled. Advocates claim this would block monopolistic practices. If the Nez Perce Dam is built it will drown out a projected dam at Mountain Sheep sought by four northwest private power companies.

Statistics Show Classroom Needs In School Distirct

Saugerties Central School District needs another building just as soon as it can be constructed statistics released this week by the board of education emphasized.

Next fall 630 pupils will go on a shortened schedule, 240 are in third grade; 360 in kindergarten, and 30 in special help classes.

The following fall it is expected that some high school pupils will have to go on half-time schedule and an additional number of pupils at the grade level. It is believed that more than 1,000 pupils will be on a half-time schedule before a new building can be completed, regardless how fast the work is accomplished, the release said.

A report from the school district's architects showed that not less than $135,000 can be saved by constructing one 1,000-pupil building now rather than two 500-pupil buildings. The decision therefore was to propose to the voters of the district that one building be constructed now and another at another time, the report said.

It emphasized that several hundred thousand dollars can be saved by constructing a new junior high school building on the district's present site, by combining the use between the two buildings of the auditorium the shop and the kitchen. This plan also avoids the cost of purchase of additional sites at this time.

The board of education has cautioned that postponement of the building program at this time will leave the district open to greater costs at a later date.

Present pupils enrollment and census reports emphasize the need for additional classrooms.

Cedar Grove Vols Join Centerville As Auxiliary Unit

The recently incorporated Cedar Grove Fire Company, the former emergency squad, officially became an auxiliary unit of Centerville Fire Company at a Tuesday night meeting of Centerville Fire District commissioners at the Town Hall.

They will be an active fire company with all rights and privileges accorded regular volunteer firemen. As an auxiliary unit they will be under the command of the Centerville fire chief.

The new arrangement will provide faster and greatly improved fire protection for the southern portion of Centerville District, and in the event of a great emergency, Centerville will have three pumper trucks at its disposal.

A group from each unit met with the fire commissioners for the purpose of organizing and coordinating to act as a unit in the event of an emergency.

There will be no change in the fire call number. The number is CHerry 6-2424 (six-two-four-two-four). Those reporting a fire are asked to give their name and the location of a fire. Monitors will immediately dispatch any or all pieces of apparatus in accordance with the need.

The Cedar Grove pumper truck passed inspection by the State Board of Fire Underwriters last week.

SERVICE STATION IN SPACE—When a vehicle runs out of gas on the Milky (express Way, bud, it's the end of the ninth. Up until this idea came along, the filling station was way back on earth. The large vehicle shown in drawing above could change this by acting as a filling station in orbit. Spaceships operating on liquid oxygen would drop in, couple up and take on new fuel. This would enable them to take off from earth with heavier payloads. Called PROFAC (Propulsive Fluid Accumulator), the orbiting filling station would gather thin air at the top of the atmosphere, change it to a liquid and store it. As designed by Northrop Aircraft Corp., it would be 120 feet long and weigh 75,000 to 125,000 pounds.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING...

by ROGER E. SPEAR
Investment Advisor and Analyst

Growth and Quality Better Than Chance

ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "I am in my late 20's and am enjoying a comfortable living. I can invest $50 a week after all expenses. I would like to gamble and yet I would also like an investment that could be cashed in at emergencies without taking a loss. What would you do if you were me?" T.Y.

A) If I were you, I'd reverse my thinking a little. There is no point at all in expecting from the stock market something that the stock market cannot deliver. If you gamble in stocks, you are certainly taking the risk of losses as well as the possibility of gains. There is no speculation I know of, and on investment quality stock, either, that is immune from the danger of loss if sold in an emergency. Why not start all over again? You are young, you have a good job, and a long future ahead of you. Forget about a gamble, keep sufficient money in the savings bank for all emergencies and invest funds you won't need for other purposes in the strongest growth stocks you can buy. You might start with Corning Glass, or General Telephone, or Texas Instruments, or Minneapolis-Honeywell. If you stick to growth and quality, over a period of years you can build a list that should make you secure before middle age has set in. That's a goal few men reach.

Q) "We do not know how to start a monthly investment plan. Is it through a stock broker, banker, or what?" B.D.

A) The monthly investment plan is handled only by brokers who are members of the New York Stock Exchange. Not all member firms do so, but most of the bigger and better known firms will be very much pleased to start such an account for you.

Feared Gangland Reprisals

Chessman Chose Death To Protect Daughter

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Caryl Chessman's attorney claims the convicted sex bandit chose death in San Quentin's gas chamber rather than jeopardize his 17-year-old daughter's safety by naming the real red light bandit.

George T. Davis said Wednesday Chessman feared "underworld reprisals" against the girl, his sole survivor.

Chessman was executed Monday. To the last he maintained his innocence, but steadfastly refused to name the man he said he knew committed the 1948 kidnap-robbery-sex abuse crimes in Los Angeles lovers' lanes.

"Caryl was afraid the governor and the attorney general would brush off any claims about someone else being guilty," said Davis. "He said if he knew he would get a real hearing then he would trust himself to protect his family. But he was afraid that if he was brushed off then his daughter would be in danger and he wouldn't be in any better position himself."

The attorney said Chessman was married in 1940 and the couple had a daughter before being divorced. Chessman subsequently remarried and divorced again.

As far as is known, the existence of his first wife and a daughter never was revealed publicly before.

Davis refused to identify either the girl or her mother, who he said had remarried. Chessman's second wife also has remarried and is living at Victorville, Calif.

Removes Limit

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has passed a bill to remove the limit on medical expenses that a taxpayer may deduct for his mother and father and his wife's mother and father.

The present income tax law permits a taxpayer to deduct only 3 per cent of his gross income until he reaches 65 when the limit is removed.

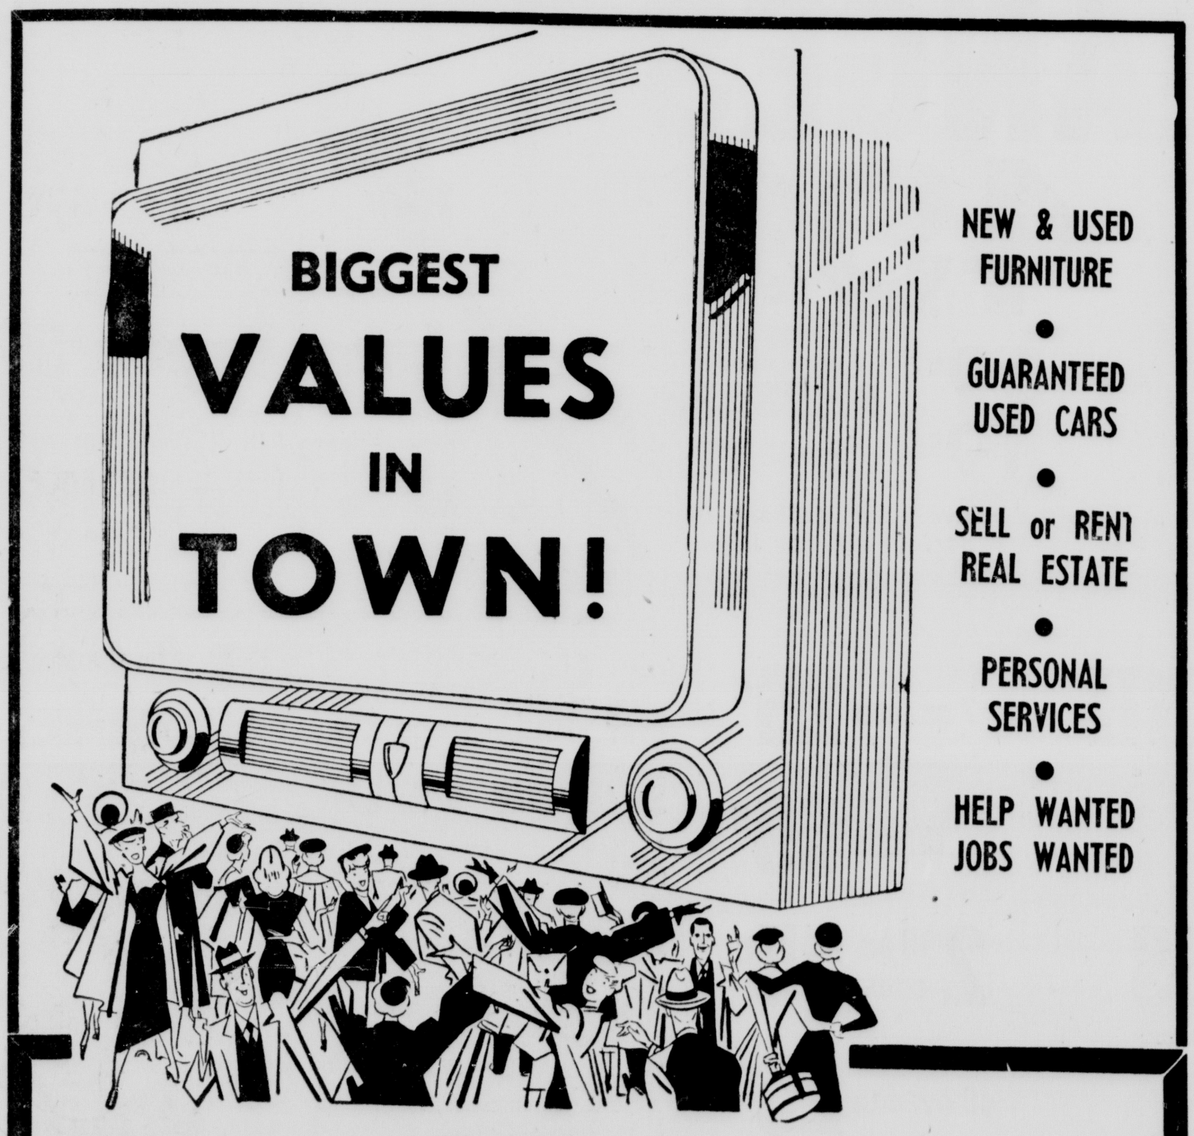

The measure, passed Wednesday, now goes to the House.

Trujillo Aide Shot

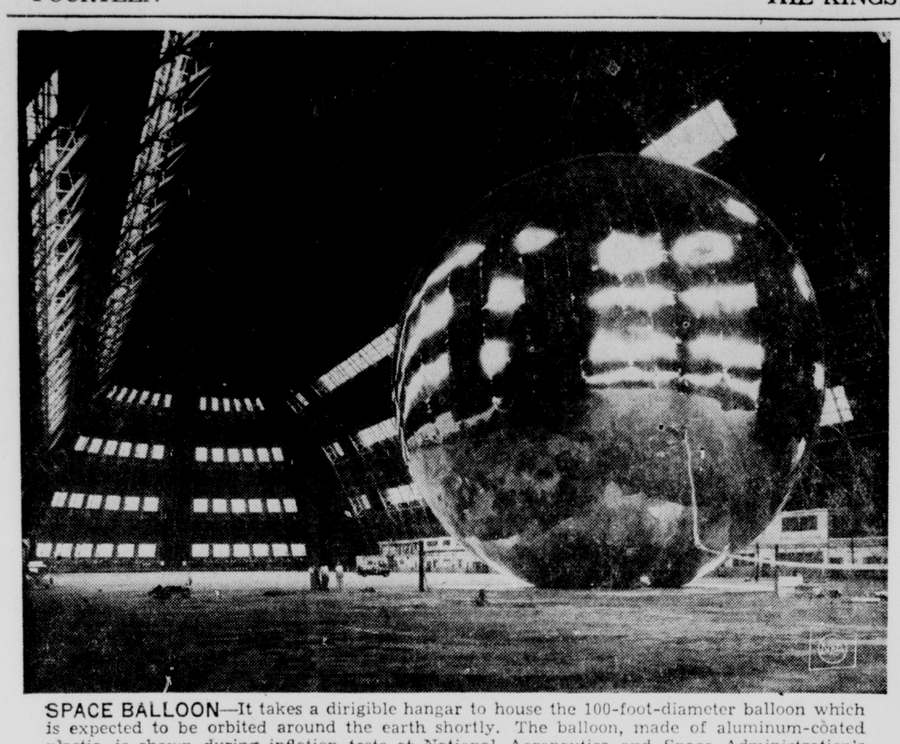

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Jose Almoina Mateos, who claims to have been a secretary to Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo, was shot Wednesday by gunmen he charged were hired by the Dominican Republic's dictator.

Almoina, 57, said a car ran him down as he was on his way to work and a gunman climbed out and pumped five bullets into him. Then the gunmen drove away. Almoina was in a critical condition.

SPACE BALLOON—It takes a dirigible hangar to house the 100-foot-diameter balloon which is expected to be orbited around the earth shortly. The balloon, made of aluminum-coated plastic, is shown during inflation tests at National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Langley Field, Va., research center. It takes 40,000 pounds of air to inflate it on the ground; in space, only a few pounds of gas. The balloon folds down to a 30-inch bundle to fit into the nose of a rocket. When it is placed in space, it will be used to reflect radio signals from earth.

Court Upholds Right To Adjust Policies

NEW YORK (AP) — The State Court of Appeals has upheld the State Insurance Department's power to adjust policy rates for handling Workmen's Compensation insurance.

Atty. Gen. Louis K. Lefkowitz said Wednesday the court found the insurance superintendent had the authority to order a cut in the rates by private insurance carriers handling the insurance when he finds the rates excessive.

Private insurance companies that sell coverage under the workmen's compensation law had appealed a lower court decision.

The insurance department, Lefkowitz said, seeks to bar the private companies from using the state agency's experience tables in fixing rates. He said the state agency handles high-risk companies the private insurance firms refuse.

Confused About Thief's Action in His Home

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Vernon Abbott is an understanding fellow, but he's confused, too.

It was bad enough when a thief broke into his apartment Wednesday and took $35 and a pack of cigarettes.

What has Abbott and the police shaking their heads is that the thief:

1. Threw black beans in his bed.
2. Plugged the bathroom sink with rubber cement.
3. Tossed green herbs about the rooms.
4. Put five marbles in one of his ashtrays.

Army Sergeant First Class William J. Donaldson of Waldwick, N. J., received a commendation ribbon from Colonel Jesse D. Bell, commander, Quartermaster Section, recently at Seventh Army headquarters, Germany. Sergeant Donaldson was commended for meritorious service as chief clerk in the quartermaster supply division. He entered the Army in 1945 and arrived overseas in April 1957 on this tour of duty. The 43-year-old soldier, whose wife, Elizabeth, lives at 132 Bergen Avenue, Waldwick, N. J., is a graduate of Yonkers High School of Commerce. His father, Hubert Donaldson, lives on Route 2, Kingston. His mother, Mrs. Josephine Donaldson, lives at 24 Mulford Gardens, Yonkers.

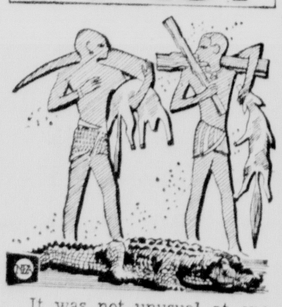

The Janitor Knew

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP) — Arriving early for a luncheon in connection with alcoholism education week here, a Guilford County official got lost at the War Memorial Building.

Chairman Lloyd Amos of the county commissioners asked a janitor: "Do you know where this meeting on alcohol is going to be held?"

"Well," the janitor replied "they gen'rally has a little in the next room."

matter of FACT

It was not unusual at one time for the well-dressed crocodile to be decked out in gold and silver. In ancient Egypt, some colonies regarded the crocodile as sacred. In these places there was always one crocodile which had been tamed. The people would fashion golden earrings and huge bracelets for the ugly beast. Besides being well-fed and cared for while he was alive, upon death the crocodile was carefully embalmed and buried in a sacred tomb.

Here's How to Revive That 'Old Feeling' in Your Wife

Memo to men:

If you want to pay your wife a compliment that will make her feel like a girl again:

● Don't tell her that she "looks nice" when she is all dressed up for a party. Tell her that she looks beautiful.

● Don't tell her that you're glad to be home after a hard day. Tell her that you're glad to be home with HER.

● Don't tell her you're getting along fine when she is away from home. Tell her how much you miss her.

● Don't tell her that it is all too complicated to try to explain when she asks you about a business matter. Take time to explain, paying her the compliment of assuming that she is capable of understanding.

● Don't tell her you think everything went off all right when she has knocked herself out to entertain your friends. Be as enthusiastic about the party as you are when you are a guest.

Why not use the superlatives you use when thanking a hostess for a wonderful evening when your own wife is the hostess?

● Don't tell her you like the room better the way it was when she has spent the day moving furniture around and rehanging pictures and is obviously pleased with the results. Tell her it looks wonderful.

● Don't be abrupt when you call her from the office on a business matter. Chat a minute or two. Then bring up the business matter as a casual "by the way . . ." afterthought, so that she will feel that you called because you were thinking of her, not because you wanted to make sure she paid the gas bill.

● Don't tell her to "stop worrying" when she obviously can't.

Sit down and listen to her problem and try to help her solve it — which pays her the subtle compliment of making her feel that her problems are yours.

Questions About Saugerties $1,485,000 School Answered

Questions were asked Saugerties Board of Education members by Citizens Interest Committee regarding the proposed new Junior High School at the regular meeting of the Board Monday night. The estimated cost of the proposed school is $1,485,000.

Present at the meeting, in addition to the Board members and the committee, was Sarkis Arkell, a member of the Sargent-Webster-Crenshaw and Folley firm, architect for the district. Miss Grace Anderson, chairman of the Citizens Interest Committee, quizzed the Board members.

Miss Anderson and her committee were interested in such questions as these: "Why does the Board of Education plan to construct one building rather than two?" "Is the site a good one?" "When will the vote on on the proposed bond issue be held?" And so on. To these and other questions, various individuals present gave the following information:

Arkell said that the proposed new building will measure approximately 75,000 square feet, whereas the typical junior high school building that will accommodate a thousand pupils, as this one will, measures 100,000 square feet. The saving is effected through using certain areas in the present building to serve the new building as well.

Arkell, and others, went on to point out that the following savings will be accomplished by locating the new building adjacent to the present one. The savings are these—an auditorium; a kitchen; one shop; and a furnace room (one boiler will be added to the present heating equipment and, when combined with the present units, will be adequate to heat the two buildings).

Stress $135,000 Saving

The question of why the Board decided to erect one building to house on a temporary basis upper grade pupils as well as junior high school pupils was answered by John Lowther, president of the board, Harry Hoffman, board member, and Clarence Brower, chairman of the Advisory Committee on Buildings. They said that a study by the architects revealed that a saving of at least $135,000 to the taxpayers of the district can be made by erecting one building on one site to accommodate approximately 1,000 pupils rather than to erect two buildings on two different sites, each of which buildings would accommodate 500 pupils. The Board plans to place upper grade pupils, probably the 4th, 5th, and 6th grade pupils in the new building as soon as this is ready for occupancy in the fall of 1962. Then, as soon as additional classrooms are needed to house the pupils of the district, it is planned to start the construction of a new elementary building and remove the upper grade pupils from the junior high school location.

Just how pupils will be located in the various parts of the present and new buildings in the district, no one can exactly tell now, but it is anticipated by the members of the administration that each group will be split from the others, so far as possible: the grades would probably be housed in one wing; the 7th and 8th grades in another, or possibly two wings; and the upper years of the high school in still other parts of the building. All would use the auditorium, at different times during the day and week, of course. The one kitchen would prepare the food and in the new building the food would be served from a special serving area where the dishes would be washed later and stored. As stated previously, this would avoid the construction of an additional kitchen.

Would Have Separate Areas

The new building, however, would have separate quarters for many departments. For example, it would have a separate principal's office, because it is believed that it would be administratively desirable not to have more than approximately 1,000 pupils under the immediate supervision of one individual. There would likewise be a separate area for nurses and for guidance personnel.

The question was asked by one of the Citizens Interest Committee members why it would not be more advisable to build a separate high school in the north west area of the school district rather than to build a second one immediately adjacent to the present one. The most important reason given for this, however, was that by placing the junior and senior high school buildings immediately adjacent to the village, which is the largest single center of population, the transportation of all village pupils would be thereby avoided. This would not be true of either the junior or senior high school buildings if located at any other point in the district.

It was pointed out by one Board member that the present buildings in the district are now accommodating more than is by any means an ideal number of pupils. Twenty-three hundred sixty-four is the number of pupils that can be comfortably housed in the present facilities. The present enrollment is in the neighborhood of 2,600 pupils, and this number will be increased next fall. It was pointed out, also, that 630 local boys and girls will begin an abbreviated school day next September; and that the number of pupils on a shortened schedule will increase annually until a new building is ready in the fall of 1962.

The following time schedule was announced: the Board hopes to submit the question of a bond issue to local voters during the latter part of June. If this is approved, the architects will immediately begin final plans and specifications which should be completed by the latter part of the current year. They would then be made available to contractors who would submit bids. If these steps can be accomplished without delay, there is reason to hope that pupils might begin to use the new building in September, 1962.

The Citizens Advisory Committee, with Miss Grace Anderson as Chairman, will meet again on May 23 at which time it is expected that Board members and members of the administration will be present once more.

Operation Alert Excellent Here, Director Reports

Public participation in Operation Alert 1960 Tuesday afternoon was described by Major H. Edgar Timmerman, director of Civil Defense for Ulster County, as "excellent." There were scattered cases where the public apparently had not heard of the nationwide civil defense test and there were a "few stragglers" who had to be warned by police and civil defense officials to take shelter.

Major Timmerman classified the test as "entirely successful" in the county despite the fact that several fire sirens "popped off" just before 2:15 p. m. when the public alert was sounded. Among the sirens which were sounded prior to the test was Ulster Hose No. 5, Town of Ulster, and several others in the eastern portion of the county. These sirens were not "re-set" in time for the alert in some instance and the alarm was sounded later.

This sounding of the sirens was the result of difficulty being experienced in the two-way radio system recently put into operation.

About 2 p. m. a fire in Suffolk County caused an alarm there and was responsible for the sounding of several fire sirens in Ulster County. Suffolk County operates on the local frequency and considerable difficulty has been experienced here from the Suffolk County radio "triggering" local fire signals. Officials are working to correct this situation.

During the alert, Major Timmerman and Sheriff Claude Bell made an inspection trip and found excellent public participation.

In Kingston, local police and CD officials halted traffic at the signal and pedestrians generally complied with the order and took cover.

The active public alert lasted for 15 minutes and the all-clear sounded at 2:30 p. m. when normal activities were resumed.

Public participation in Operation Alert 1960 concluded Tuesday but Civil Defense officials will continue their portion of the test until 4 p. m. Thursday.

Dissolve Tobacco Tars from Mouth & Throat

New, exclusive relief expressly for smokers

Tobacco tars are deposited on the sensitive membranes of your mouth and throat with every puff of a cigarette, cigar or pipe. To the possible health hazards of these foreign substances introduced into your physical system, are added the personal unpleasantness of a bad tasting mouth, and the offensiveness to others of a bad-smelling breath.

SMOKERS DROPS*, new and medicated relief from Smith Brothers, actually dissolve these gummy irritants. The special "detergent" ingredients in SMOKERS DROPS, protectively and pleasantly, emulsify and remove tobacco tars from these vital tissues. This new product, developed in the modern laboratories of famous Smith Brothers, is the ONLY relief made expressly for smokers.

NEW YORK (AP)—Two out of three American corporations managed to make more money in the first three months of this year than in the first quarter of 1959.

But a slowdown in the year to year gain—5.5 per cent this time—was noticeable. A year ago they were doing 54 per cent better than in depressed 1958.

Total profits were well below last year's high in the second quarter. And many companies may be doing well to break even in the current quarter with last year's figures.

Dividends Follow Pattern

Dividends are following much the same pattern. Cash payments in this year's first quarter were reported 7 per cent ahead of a year ago by the Department of Commerce but a slowdown in the advance was indicated in April in figures by Standard & Poor's Corp.

The statistical firm reports that for the first time since November 1958 the number of dividend increases failed to rise. This April, 38 companies raised their dividends, compared with 106 in March and 70 in April 1959.

Caution over the slower rate of profit improvements is believed by the firm to have caused the go-slow attitude of many corporate boards.

The earning figures for the first quarter also show a decline in profit margins from a year ago. While many companies show sales ahead of last year, the ratio of profits to sales slipped. Reasons given include higher operating costs and increased competition here and abroad.

Profit Prospects Studied

The U.S. Treasury also is watching the profit prospects this year closely, since much of the hope for a Treasury surplus depends upon a substantial increase in corporate earnings this year to provide larger income tax collections.

Of 652 corporate earnings tabulated for the first quarter of this year, 418 companies reported increases over the previous year. This time there were 45 of them operating at a loss, compared with 34 in the red in the 1959 period.

Groups declining this year included aircrafts, containers, rail equipment, mining and metalworking, rubber and railroads. The airlines as a group showed a net loss this year, compared with a modest profit a year ago.

On the upside—often helped by comparisons with bad performances in 1959—were farm equipment, textiles, machinery and tools, and communications, in particular.

The steel industry as a whole pulled ahead of last year by 9 per cent, although its second quarter prospects are far less bright. The motors industry staged a 7 per cent advance, with second quarter performances also in some doubt.

To Cover Canal Feeder System Despite Veto

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The State Public Works Department will cover a portion of the Barge Canal feeder system in Canastota, despite Gov. Rockefeller's veto of a bill appropriating money for the work.

Public Works Superintendent J. Burch McMorran said Wednesday his department will spend $75,000 of its funds on the work in Madison County.

The allocation will "carry out the general intent of the bill without mandating an expenditure in excess of $75,000," McMorran said.

Rockefeller vetoed the bill on the ground the work specified would cost far more than $75,000.

TEHERAN, IRAN (NOV. 28-DEC. 1, 1943) — Premier Stalin, President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill met to guide their joint effort in defeating Germany and to "banish the scourge and terror of war for many generations." The three governments also agreed to work for the welfare of Iran.

YALTA, CRIMEA (FEB. 4, 1945)—This first meeting between the Big Three since Teheran was to be their last. The conference was designed to get Russia into war against Japan and to set up the three-power occupation of Germany. The Polish boundary was also defined and a U.N. charter outlined.

POTSDAM, GERMANY (JULY 17-AUG. 2, 1945)—President Truman, Premier Stalin and Prime Minister Clement Atlee—who replaced Churchill—met near Berlin to discuss, for the most part, defeated Germany. A council of foreign ministers was scheduled to deal with the final peace settlements.

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND (JULY 18-23, 1955)—Premier Bulganin, President Eisenhower, Premier Edgar Faure of France and Prime Minister Anthony Eden of Britain met and agreed to set about the process of reunifying Germany. The conference closed with utterances of "friendship," "understanding."

Man Who Handled $338 Million Gets Three-Year Term

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Thomas J. Lynch, who handled more than 338 million dollars while employed at the St. Lawrence Seaway, will serve three years in jail for taking $27,850.

Lynch, 42, of Holyoke, Mass., had pleaded guilty to a specific charge that he had caused $27,859 in stolen funds to be transported in interstate commerce.

Judge James T. Foley of U. S. District Court sentenced Lynch Wednesday to serve three years on each of four counts but ordered concurrent terms.

Lynch also has been indicted in St. Lawrence County on 70 counts of grand larceny and forgery involving $119,000. Authorities at Canton will not be able to press these charges until Lynch is released from federal prison.

Lynch was office manager at Massena for Perini Corp. of Boston, Mass., a construction firm that was involved in building the seaway projects. He handled payrolls for the firms.

Rondout Valley Women to Finish Scout Fund Drive

The women of Rondout Valley District of Rip Van Winkle Council, Boy Scouts of America will complete last year's Boy Scout fund campaign this weekend, May 6, 7, 8 and 9.

This money is partially used to help bring the program of the Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Explorers to the local units.

Chairmen are Mrs. Jack Green, Ellenville; Mrs. Andrew Grote, Napanoch area, and Mrs. Arvin Chaiken, Kerhonkson — Accord area.

Rondout Valley District Chairman David Chait complimented Police Judge, Frank Decker, for his efforts in the special gifts division of the Scout Campaign.

Arthur Tassman, institutional representative of the Ulster Knife Explorer Post which is in the process of being formed, volunteered to take care of the publicity for the clean-up campaign.

Chairman Chait also emphasized that this was the clean-up of the 1959 campaign and should not be confused with the 1960-1961 Boy Scout campaign which is scheduled for October-November of this year.

Says More Diversion Would Threaten Power

MASSENA, N. Y. (AP) — Increased water diversion by Chicago would threaten operations at the Moses-Saunders Power Dam on the St. Lawrence River, an engineer maintains.

George Rich, an engineer for the New York State Power Authority, said in a statement Wednesday that present Chicago diversion did not impair operations of the dam.

Rich testified during a federal hearing in opposition to Chicago's request to increase its water diversion, currently more than two billion gallons a day, by 19.4 million gallons daily for sanitation purposes.

Rich, under questioning, said the dam could handle more water if Chicago released it.

New York, Ohio, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Michigan and Pennsylvania are opposing Chicago's request for additional Great Lakes water.

Aged Plan Seen Far From Ideal for All

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Most of the people over 65 would have to pay out a big chunk of their income before they could get any benefits under the Eisenhower administration's medical care program for the aged.

As a program, it's a lot less than ideal, probably because there was a lot of disagreement within the administration on what to propose, if anything.

3½ Million Out

About 3½ million of the 16 million people over 65 would not be covered at all. They are people with income of at least $2,500 for a single person, $3,800 for a couple. Those with that much income are excluded.

For the rest who might be eligible—and no one would have to join who didn't want to—the federal government and the states would share the medical costs above a certain figure which he himself would have to pay.

For example:

An eligible person who joined up would have to pay a fee of $24 a year, whether or not he got sick. Then, if he did get sick, he'd have to pay the first $250 of his medical bills if single ($400 for a married couple) before he'd get federal-state help.

But, on top of that, he'd have to pay 20 per cent of whatever the cost was above $250.

Since not all states might want to take part in the program, people living in the ones which didn't wouldn't get under the program at all.

Full coverage at no cost would be provided for those 2½ million people who have to depend on public assistance for their living.

About 10 Million Eligible

So when you eliminate the 3½ million excluded by the size of their income and the 2½ million on public assistance and getting the program benefits for free, you wind up with about 10 million people eligible to choose whether they will participate or will stay out of the program.

Most of them are on the Social Security rolls now. A government survey of such people in 1957 showed the average retired couple had a total income of about $1,140. The average aged widow had a total income of $880.

Let's take the widow with $880 who ran up a medical bill of $400 and see how much she'd have to pay out of her own pocket if she decided to get under the program. This would be it:

First, $24 for the enrollment fee. Then the first $250 of the $400. Then 20 per cent of the difference between $250 and $400, which would be 20 per cent of $150, or $30.

Total cost to her then on a $400 medical bill would be $304. The federal-state payment would be $96.

But that same 1957 study showed the average medical expense for people over 65 was $177.

So, under the Eisenhower program, many people, besides paying the $24 to the state, would have to pay their entire medical bill of $177, since the program wouldn't come into operation for them until their cost was over $250.

The ones who would benefit most under the program would be those who were laid up in a hospital a long time or whose medical bills ran well up above $250.

Miss Donaldson Named

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller appointed today Miss Dorothea E. Donaldson, a member of the Workmen's Compensation Board, as member and chairman of the Unemployment Insurance Appeal Board.

Miss Donaldson, of New Rochelle, will succeed Edward F. Dillon of Flushing, who is resigning. She will take office May 18 for a term ending Nov. 18, 1961 and will be paid $16,962 a year.

Miss Donaldson, a Republican, first was appointed to the Workmen's Compensation Board in 1950 by former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

Rockefeller Has No Plans to Meet Nixon in State

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller, who maintains he will not accept the Republican vice presidential nomination "no matter who offers it," says he has no plans to meet Vice President Richard M. Nixon during Nixon's visit to Upstate New York May 17 and 18.

Nixon will be in Auburn May 17 for a testimonial dinner for Rep. John Taber (R-NY) and will speak in Buffalo May 18 at a convention of sales executives.

No Bid to Dinner

Rockefeller, at a news conference Wednesday, said he had not been invited to the Taber dinner. He added that he had an engagement in New York City at the same time.

The Republican governor also said he felt there was "a very serious question" about the financing of the health program for the aged recommended by the Eisenhower administration.

President Eisenhower proposed that the national and state governments split a $1,200,000,000 subsidy.

Rockefeller said the health program should be handled under the present social security system, to allow those who get the benefits to help pay for them.

Rockefeller also told newsmen that his refusal to accept the vice presidency was not intended to reflect on that office. He said his background was one of executive experience.

Still Plans Talk

The vice presidency is not an executive post, he said. However, he repeated his statement that Nixon had done a "superb" job as vice president.

The governor said he planned to continue to speak on national and international issues and would make trips outside the state. However, he said he has had no invitations to assume any major role in the Republican national convention.

Rockefeller withdrew last December from campaigning for the Republican presidential nomination, leaving the field to Nixon. Some of the governor's supporters, however, still consider him a possibility for the top nomination.

Boy Who Shot Father Committed for Help

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—A 13-year-old former Boy Scout, who shot and killed his father during an argument over homework, has been committed to a state institution.

Judge Leo J. Yehle of Children's Court sentenced Robert Fairbanks Wednesday to an indefinite term and said the boy would be given special care and psychotherapy as recommended by psychiatrists. He did not say where the boy would be confined.

Yehle said that if and when Fairbanks is released, the boy would be kept under the supervision of officials for a time.

Police said Robert shot his father, Leon, 56, seven times with a .22-caliber target pistol last March 16 at the family home in suburban Onondaga Hill.

Robert, an adopted child, said he shot his father, who owned a construction company, when the elder Fairbank insisted the boy should redo a series of mathematics problems.

Ex-Mayor Gives Own $60,000 to Complete Project

OLEAN, N. Y. (AP)—Ex-Mayor Fred W. Forness spent $60,000 in city funds in 1936 in a vain attempt to bring well water into the supply system. Wednesday, he donated the same amount of money to the city to complete the project.

Forness, 87, chairman of the Cattaraugus County Democratic Committee turned the check over to the present mayor, Ivers J. Norton, a Republican.

"I want to show the public I knew what I was doing when I spent the money originally," he said. "I would not want to die thinking I had spent $60,000 of the city's money and had nothing to show for it."

The three-time mayor said he was "crossed-up by a gang of well water opponents" when the project was started. Two wells were dug, but soon were capped.

The only stipulation from Forness in the donation is that the money must be used to complete the conversion of the present supply to well water. The city gets its water from Olean Creek.

Norton said the donation for the project would need council approval and a legal okay from the city attorney. The council has a 6-5 Republican majority.

Forness was elected mayor in 1933 and was re-elected in 1935. He won his third term in 1939.

AMERICAN MENU

Westminster Bride's Cake Is Made With White Mix

IN THE American tradition is this Westminster wedding cake, made today with packaged mixes and sumptuously decorated.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX

Newspaper Enterprise Food and Markets Editor

The wedding of Princess Margaret of England and Antony Armstrong-Jones keynotes the bridal season. Also, American brides, every one a princess in the eyes of her lover, are now planning their weddings as the notable young English couple prepare to leave Westminster Abbey, man and wife.

Traditionally, a beautifully decorated cake must honor every bride. In England, it is always a rich dark fruitcake, but in the United States it is often a white cake, called either The Bride's Cake or The Wedding Cake. It must be royally decorated, second in beauty only to the bride's gown.

Westminster White Wedding Cake

Two packages white cake mix, 2½ cups water, 4 eggs whites, unbeaten; 1 teaspoon almond extract, Ornamental Frosting, silver dragees.

Prepare cake mixes with water and egg whites as directed on package, adding almond extract. To beat cake mix, use the large (4-quart) mixing bowl. Grease and flour generously two 8-inch and one 10-inch round layer pans, or line bottoms of pans with waxed paper and grease sides. Pour batter to equal depths in each pan, filling pans about half full. Bake in moderate oven (350 degree F.) 30 to 35 minutes for 8-inch layers and 40 to 45 minutes for 10-inch layer. Cool cakes 15 minutes in pans on cake racks; then remove from pans and finish cooling on racks. Trim one 8-inch layer to make a 5-inch round layer.

Ornamental Frosting

One-half cup butter or margarine, ½ teaspoon salt, 3 pounds (about 12 cups) sifted confectioners' sugar, 5 egg whites, unbeaten; ¼ cup cream (about), 2 teaspoons vanilla.

Cream butter or margarine. Add salt and part of the sugar gradually, blending after each addition. Add remaining sugar, alternately with the egg whites first, then with the cream, until of right consistency to spread. Beat after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla; blend. (While frosting cake, keep bowl of frosting covered with a damp cloth to prevent excessive evaporation.)

Probe Is Opened On Shortage in Military Payroll

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (AP) —An investigation in the shortage of $2,000 from a military payroll at nearby Fort Niagara has been opened.

The shortage, it was revealed Wednesday, was discovered Saturday, payday at Battery B of the first missile battalion.

The total payroll was not revealed.

A spokesman for the board of inquiry said the "possibility was unlikely" that a clerical error was responsible for the shortage. He said the safe which held the payroll last Friday night and Saturday morning showed no signs of tampering.

The troops were paid Monday, he said.

9,768 Work on Project

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (AP) — Employment at the Niagara power project has reached a record 9,768 workers, the State Power Authority says.

Peak employment, the authority said Wednesday, was expected to reach 11,000 this summer.

Child Injured Fatally

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Joy Nangreave, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nangreave of Rochester, was injured fatally Wednesday night when she was struck by an automobile near her home.

Two Houses Burn, 23 Are Homeless

CANANDAIGUA, N. Y. (AP)—Fire, fanned by high winds, destroyed two homes in the nearby community of Baptist Hill Wednesday and left 23 persons, including 18 children, homeless.

No one was injured.

Firemen said the fire started in a barn owned by Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Lloyd. Wind blew the flames to the Lloyd home and later engulfed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wheat.

Living with the Lloyds were their 11 children, ranging in age from 1 to 17 years, and an uncle. The Wheats have seven children, from 6 to 21 years.

The cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

The burned-out families moved in with neighbors, temporarily, Ontario County Deputy Sheriffs said.

Firemen from six communities fought the afternoon fire but were hampered by the winds and a water shortage.

Along Capitol Corridors

By ROBERT T. GRAY

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — A top Democratic leader in the state reports that 90 per cent of his party's county chairmen favor Sen. John F. Kennedy for the Democratic nomination for president.

The party source, who declined to be identified, predicted that most of the state's 114-vote delegation would be committed to Kennedy by convention time.

Lone factor is hope that Catholic Republicans would vote for him.

Vital for Senator

The delegates will be elected June 7 in party primaries. For the most part, their preferences will reflect the wishes of the county chairmen.

Later next month, the delegation will meet to take a formal stand on a candidate.

Endorsement of Kennedy by the king-sized New York delegation, the largest to the convention, could be a major factor in the Massachusetts Senator's quest for the nomination.

Kennedy backers in this state are predicting that, with New York's delegation, their candidate will go into the convention with more than 400 votes.

A total of 687 votes will be necessary for nomination at the July convention in Los Angeles.

While the ranks of the declared Kennedy-supporters in New York are growing, they do not include the state chairman, Michael H. Prendergast.

He was reported initially cool to the Kennedy bid and leaning toward the Candidacy of Sen. Symington of Missouri.

Ave Pushing Stu

Former Gov. Averell Harriman, who selected Prendergast for state chairman, reportedly was a factor in that situation. Harriman envisioned himself as secretary of state in a Symington administration, it was reported, and was pushing the Missouri senator.

But Symington has made little noticeable headway among New York State Democrats.

Prendergast, publicly at least, now appears to be standing aside and letting the Kennedy boom among New York Democrats take its course.

There are various factors in the Kennedy movement in this state. Many Democratic leaders are Roman Catholics of Irish descent, as is Kennedy.

Many are considering Kennedy's candidacy in the light of state, as well as national politics.

Dems Eye Senate

With Kennedy at the head of the Democratic ticket, the political thinking goes, Catholic Republicans upstate would defect and vote for him, and State Democratic candidates might pick up some votes.

The Republicans might lose more than votes in such a development.

New York Democrats feel they have a good chance this year of making deep inroads on Republican control of the Legislature. Some Democrats are talking seriously of taking over the Senate, which the GOP has controlled 34-24.

It has been estimated that only nine per cent of the world's land area is cultivated.

Young Bandits Roundup Moves Into Baltimore

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — The roundup of what police describe as a youthful gang of holdup men moved to Baltimore Wednesday.

The fifth member of the alleged gang was arrested by Baltimore police on information stemming from the questioning of a man picked up earlier in Charlotte, N. C. The FBI said the Charlotte arrest was made on a stolen vehicle charge.

Three men were arrested here and were charged with first-degree robbery. Police say the group staged five hold-ups and an attempted hold-up in Buffalo in April.

Eddie L. Thomas, 18, of Baltimore was arrested Wednesday in that city. Robert Adams, 16, Willie F. Robinson, 18, and Alvin Brown, 20, all of Buffalo were arraigned on the robbery counts Wednesday in city court and were held in $25,000 bail after pleading innocent to the charges. Ishmel Blocker Jr., 24, was arrested in Charlotte.

The dentist was about to leave his office with his golf bag on his shoulder, when the phone rang. Oh, doctor, I'm in great pain, whined a voice, and I must see you at once. Sorry replied the dentist firmly, but I already have an appointment to fill eighteen cavities this afternoon.

The revenue agent toiled up the rock-lined mountain path toward a spot where a still was known to be located. Suddenly a shot rang out. Something grazed his sleeve. But, a determined man, the agent plodded upward. There came another shot, which put a hole in his coat tail. Heedlessly, he went on. A third report, and a bullet knocked his hat off. Despite all this, however, he drove himself forward.

Then, from behind a rock near the top, a voice sounded. One more step, it warned grimly, an I begin takin' aim.

A salesman bought some limburger cheese to eat in his hotel room. When he got ready to leave he still had about half of the cheese left. He didn't want to pack it, neither did he want to leave it lying in the room. Finally he removed a plant from its pot on the window sill, buried the cheese, and replaced the plant. A few days later he received this telegram from the hotel management: "We give up, where did you put it?"

SPIKES FOR STRAYERS — Driver in car demonstrates how reflecting spikes fold on white line between two lanes on autobahn near Offenbach, West Germany. The spikes were installed as warning to motorists not to cross the roadway marker.

ALWAYS GOING FORWARD—Two-faced car is used by a Brooklyn, N.Y., auto body repair shop. Two front halves were welded together. There are two dashboards and two steering wheels, only one of which is usable. Brothers Mel, left, and Nat Tamarkin own the car. Mrs. Nat looks out the window.

Lt. Gov. Assails Payola Attitude As Threat to U.S.

NEW YORK (AP) — Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson says the "payola attitude" is a threat to this country, but that the average American respects an honest man.

Wilson spoke Wednesday night at a dinner of the New York Athletic Club Retreads. He said: "Easy money, the quick buck artist, the influence peddler are becoming all too familiar in our society. . .

"But the average American has a built-in revulsion for the phony —and the inherent respect for the honest man. This is our national character and this is what must prevail."

The Retreads, an organization of World War I and II veterans, presented Wilson with its annual award for outstanding citizenship.

WATER SCOOTER ON DISPLAY — This model of a "flying water scooter" was exhibited at the International Fair in Milan, Italy. A 16-horsepower motor moves craft a few inches off water and propels it forward. It is MV Augusta firm product.

WEAKER SEX?—When her car stalled in a downtown Hartford, Conn., parking lot, did this lady call for help? No, sir. She climbed right under the hood and fished for the trouble. However, she couldn't find it. A male attendant came to the rescue and tightened a loose wire on the starter mechanism.

2,000 at Opening Of 3rd Dutchess Show Wednesday

Approximately 2,000 persons attended the opening of the third annual Dutchess Exposition and Home Show conducted by the Poughkeepsie Junior Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night at the State Armory, Market and Church Streets.

A Pied Piper parade down Main Street and thence to the Armory started the event. Officials in charge of the show predicted the show, with a spring showcase theme, would be the biggest event of its kind held in Poughkeepsie.

Mayor Victor Waryas, County Clerk Frederic Smith, City Manager John Desmond and City Judge Charles O'Donnell assisted in a tape-cutting ceremony.

Miss Helen Cooper, of the Bronx, a student at the State University College of Education, New Paltz, rode in a cabin cruiser float during the parade. Later she took a prominent part in the show at the Armory.

An added feature of last night was the release of a huge gaily painted weather balloon containing a history of Poughkeepsie and the Jaycees.

The four-day show has 47 exhibits and displays, including features such as automobiles, television sets, swimming pools, cabin cruisers, sporting goods, business machines and many other specialties.

The show will be open daily from 6:30 p. m. to 10:30 p. m. through Friday and from 1:30 p. m. to 10:30 p. m. on Saturday.

Charge Is Dismissed

A second degree assault charge against Otis Thomasson Jr., 28, of 30 Tompkins Street, was dismissed in city court today after the complainant failed to prosecute. Thomasson, charged with having slashed the right arm of his brother-in-law, George Knox, 23, of 78 Abeel Street, with a razor early Saturday on Canal Street, was picked up Monday on a warrant executed by Detective Gurnsey Burger. Attorney Charles Gaffney appeared for the defendant and John E. Gotelli for the district attorney's office.

Charged With Larceny

Edward J. Matthews, 23, of Milton, was arrested by Highland state police Wednesday night minutes after he allegedly stole a taxicab in Highland. Troopers Harry Foster and Harry Whalen were alerted after Pape's Taxi Service called to say one of their cars had been stolen. The troopers picked up Matthews in Milton. He was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Louis J. Canino, waived examination and was committed to the Ulster County Jail to await action of the grand jury.

Popular Play Will Be Repeated Tonight And Saturday Here

Time-honored notions about witches being hideous creatures with broomsticks, black cats and pumpkins, were discarded Wednesday night when Coach House Players presented John van Druten's "Bell, Book and Candle" at the George Washington School.

Barbara McGrath, as Gillian, portrayed the glamorous 20th century witch who reforms for the sake of love. Her task of showing how a young lady lives unsuspected of her witchcraft in New York was a convincing performance.

Shep, the debonair, unsuspecting publisher who becomes infatuated with Gillian so that he forgets his own fiancee, was ably portrayed by Carl Cordoni.

Also on the side of sorcery was Hap Clauss, as Gillian's aunt, Miss Holroyd, and John Culjak as Nicky, Gillian's brother.

Hap Clauss, Gillian's fluttery aunt ,lives in a witches' hotel where the ladies do their brewing in a communal kitchen. Her nephew, Nicky, the male witch, shocks the family by getting a job instead of witching for his living.

Also on the boards was Francis Matteson, as the slightly alcoholic mystery writer who is in the process of compiling a modern-day handbook on American witchery.

The technical staff must be commended as well as the actors, for without a tastefully decorated stage and precision backstage a play would lose some of its value and this performance did not lack for value.

The play will be repeated tonight and Saturday at the George Washington School, curtain at 8:30 p. m.

Area Attorney Is Admitted to U. S. Supreme Court

A Rosendale attorney, William P. Curran, was admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States, at Washington, D. C., Monday, May 2. He was admitted with a group of fellow Alumni of St. John's University School of Law before the full nine men highest court of our country, in an Alumni-sponsored program.

Largest Group Ever

Chief Justice Earl Warren commented that it was the largest group ever admitted to that highest court, the group totaling approximately 280, and having alumni from the first graduating class to the class of

WILLIAM P. CURRAN

1956. It is necessary that applicants practice law for three years before being admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States.

The group was admitted in six smaller groups and was made up of practicing lawyers from as far west as California, who graduated from St. John's University School of Law.

Attorney Curran is a graduate of Fordham Preparatory School, received a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Fordham University in 1952, and his law degree from St. John's University in 1956. He was admitted to practice in 1956 before all courts of the State of New York. He was subsequently admitted to practice in the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York.

Curran, whose family has resided in Rosendale for over a century, established his general practice of law in Rosendale immediately upon being admitted to the New York State Bar, and maintains law offices in Rosendale.

Is Peace Justice

In 1957 Curran was elected justice of the peace of the town of Rosendale and continues to hold that judicial office.

Justice Curran is active locally, being a line officer of his fire company, and is an active member of the town and county firemen's association, the local, county and State Grange, the local and State Bar Associations, as well as numerous other local activities.

During a recess of the Supreme Court, Justice Brennen addressed the St. John's group in the Supreme Court conference room, and said that admission to the highest court in the land was a most proper and fitting way to celebrate Law Day.

The average sugar maple yields 15 to 20 gallons of sap, which boils down to slightly more than a quart of syrup.

GIVING MONEY TACTFULLY

Dear Mrs. Post: The father of one of our office workers has just died. We know the family could use money and someone suggested taking up a collection and instead of sending flowers to send the money either to her or to her mother, who is a stranger. Would money be permissible and to whom should we send it?

Answer: The giving of money is a rather delicate question. But under these circumstances, I would suggest that you take the contribution to the daughter and say that the sum was intended for flowers or any other purpose that she might prefer.

Inviting Her Husband's Friends

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband would like to ask a certain couple who were nice to him while I was away, to our house some evening to play bridge. I have never met them but my husband wants me to call and invite them. I think, under the circumstances, it would be better for him to call and ask them to come over. But he says it is my place to do the inviting. If it is my place, how do I go about inviting a stranger to my house?

Answer: You should telephone the wife and say, "John has spoken so warmly of you that I want very much to meet you. Will you and your husband come to dinner next Thursday and play bridge afterwards?"

Proper at a Convention

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I are giving a large cocktail party shortly for friends and relatives. Many of the guests will be strangers to each other and it will be impossible to introduce everyone. Would it be in good taste to have all the guests wear name tags, and if so, will you please tell me how this is handled?

Answer: Name tags for your guests would be in very bad taste; please don't even consider them.

Youth Trapped At Foot of Well

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—Rescue crews from Ohio and West Virginia have poured into tiny Burlington, Ohio, in an effort to free an 18-year-old Negro boy from his entrapment at the bottom of a 35-foot dry well. Hundreds of would-be helpers and onlookers ringed the scene.

Individual digging efforts were halted early this morning because of the well's repeatedly collapsing walls. A clamshell shovel was brought in to do the work. The weight of the hundreds of persons standing near the well site probably was hastening the collapse, a spokesman said.

Warren Payne was buried under eight feet of the sandy soil late Wednesday afternoon as he worked at the bottom of the newly dug well. The sides of the pit had not been shored up. It was to be used as a cesspool.

Rescuers have been hampered from the start by the shifting soil. Late last night one of the youth's arms was uncovered but a collapse of the walls quickly buried it.

Lt. Z. T. Earls of the Huntington fire department said the youth probably has been crushed by the weight of the sand.

The trapped youth is one of eight children of Mr. and Mrs. Minor Payne, a contractor. The well was being dug at the back of their home.

Warren is the oldest of the children and was a high school football, baseball and track star.

Cleaning of City Water Mains Due To Start May 10

Some 87,000 feet of main water line pipe between the Zena-Woodstock area and the city will have been cleaned when the water department Friday afternoon finishes the project, Edmund T. Cloonan, water department superintendent said today.

Work is due to start on or about May 10 in cleaning city water mains, he said. This work will be done between midnight and 6 a. m.

The main pipe lines are cleaned at this time of year for greater efficiency in supplying the city with water during the summer.

the route from Buckingham Palace to the Abbey bright with flowers, and the first spectators will be taking up places for an overnight wait on the sidewalk.

The crowds are expected to be the greatest since Elizabeth's coronation. Thousands of extra police were called into the city to control them.

50,000 Mob Couple

Fifty thousand cheering fans mobbed the princess and Armstrong-Jones Wednesday night as they were driven to the 1,000-guest reception and dinner dance the Queen and Prince Philip gave for them at Buckingham Palace.

Mounted police shepherded the big maroon Rolls Royce through as the crowd broke through police lines and slowed the car to a crawl. Margaret and her fiance waved and smiled as shouts of "good luck!" went up from the mass of struggling men and women.

Hoderath Named

of Hoderath's "competence and experience" to fill in for Principal Miller.

Dr. Earl F. Soper, superintendent of schools, also praised Hoderath, saying he has "earned his spurs" in the local school system and has the respect of teachers, students and community.

The board also approved an "internship" at Kingston High School similar to one established last month for the Myron J. Michael School.

This will be an in-service training program for a teacher who aspires to administrative responsibility and has the proper educational background to qualify.

Mrs. Connelly proposed the establishment of such an internship. Applications will be invited from teachers interested in advancement in administrative posts.

High School

tain the costs and feasibility of installing sprinklers in all schools of the district.

Bids on the additions to Schools 5 and 6 will be advertised May 12, it was reported. They were scheduled to be advertised earlier but plans were altered when it became known that local contractors were tied up for the moment with other work.

The board declared David Kline and Arthur Withall duly elected for five-year terms on the board effective July 1.

Dr. Earl F. Soper, superintendent of schools, was authorized to prepare notices of sale for about a dozen unoccupied schoolhouses in the district.

Several such schoolhouses, abandoned when 25 outlying districts consolidated with the city of Kingston, have already been transferred to area townships.

Awaiting Request

The board last night decided to hold in abeyance the sale of the Connelly School pending receipt of a formal request from the Connelly Fire Company (South Rondout Fire District). The board acted following a request by Sol Rosenthal, town of Esopus councilman, who was present at the meeting.

It was pointed out that the board would like to get rid of the schools as soon as possible, that until they are disposed the district must continue payment of tax, insurance, maintenance, etc., on them.

It was felt that the schoolhouses should be auctioned off at the sites.

The board is exploring the possibility of employing a local realtor to conduct the sales of the abandoned school buildings. Most of them are one-room structures.

Foxes Delighted

Howard Fox, a member of the board, who accompanied the Kingston High School Choir on its recent trip to South Carolina, reported that he and Mrs. Fox had been delighted with the behavior and personal appearance of the boys and girls who made the trip.

He said when the bus stopped and the boys and girls got off, at various points during the trip, the boys had on shirts, ties and jackets and the girls were dressed "as if for church." He praised the director and chaperones who handled the trip so well.

Gracious Host

He said that Clarence S. Rowland, a former president of the Kingston Board of Education, now residing in Camden, S. C., had everything planned beautifully and was a "most gracious host." He described the trip as an interesting cultural exchange.

The board adopted a resolution introduced by Fox expressing gratitude for the hospitality extended the group in Camden and Lancaster where the choir sang. He pointed out that Rowland had paid for the cost of transportation for the choir (approximately $1,600) and that the only cost to the students were meals during travel and one night's lodging each way. They stayed in private homes in South Carolina.

May Visit Kingston

It was reported that the Camden High School Band may visit Kingston next year, playing at assembly and for a football game. This is still highly tentative, however.

The board took cognizance of receipt of a check for $350 from J. F. Schuehler, manager of public relations at IBM, for use of Chambers and Lake Katrine School gymnasiums. The money is applied to the credit of the scholarship fund.

It was reported that Teacher Recognition Day will be held Tuesday, May 17, with a tea at 3 p. m. in the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Resignations Received

The following resignations were accepted with regret:

John L. Fallon, health and science teacher at KHS, effective April 6, 1960.

PROCLAIMS YOUTH DAY FOR ELKS — Lodges throughout the nation of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks are observing Youth Day on Saturday, and Kingston Lodge 550 has a special program for the May 7 date. Mayor Edwin F. Radel (left) has issued a proclamation urging all departments of government, civic, fraternal and patriotic groups, also all citizens to participate in the observance. Exalted Ruler Kenneth Peters holds calendar as John Peters, chairman of the Elks Youth Activities Committee points to the day of observance. "No event could be more deserving of our support than one dedicated to the nation's greatest resource," says the proclamation. "Youth needs the guidance, inspiration and encouragement which we alone can give," it stresses. Kingston Lodge is sponsoring a field day at Dietz Stadium Saturday for boys and girls up to 14 years of age, beginning at 10 a. m. (Freeman photo).

Central . . .

uted to several other locations.

He hopes ultimately to balance the cafeteria budget, he told the board. The lunch program has been a steady money loser for many years.

The MJM cafeteria will be closed in September because of double sessions. There will be no need of a lunch program with students attending only half a day.

In presenting his case Johnson pointed out that a central commissary type of lunch program would do a number of things.

Will Save, He Says

It will save money by centralizing food preparation in one kitchen, for instance. This saving would be in labor for preparation personnel, purchasing and delivering of bulk unprocessed foods to one kitchen, annual maintenance for building facilities, heat, light and power, and in the reduced cost to produce large quantities and the reduction of waste.

He pointed out that transported food stays hot, is delivered to the schools in pre-heated ovens to maintain temperature until serving time.

The food remains appetizing and sanitary, he said, explaining that it is covered with aluminum foil and served from the pan in which it is delivered.

Nutrition Guarded

The food also stays nutritious, he said, pointing out that food which is delivered is cooked and requires only maintenance of temperature. Original nutrition is maintained since cooking does not continue after it leaves the high school.

He also explained that uniform quality is more universal, that quality food can be served in all schools and that more opportunity exists to concentrate on top quality food which is prepared in one location.

Johnson said there has been a steady increase in the number of pupils participating in the program.

There has been a 10 per cent increase in School 2 in April as compared to January, he said. The increase for the same period at School 5 was 57 per cent and at School 8 32 per cent.

Dietz School

situation is. Murphy indicated that the designs may be fitted to the contour, if this appears feasible, reducing somewhat the amount of rock which must be excavated.

He said it is a "pretty site and a very difficult one."

Language

First evidence of language dates back only to about 4000 B.C., but probably languages existed in a spoken form much earlier. Known records state there are only five languages as old as 1850 B. C.

Nixon Moves

at the opening of the fourth U. S. World Trade Fair.

But in Albany, Rockefeller said he would refuse the vice presidency "no matter who might ask me."

By taking the opportunity to pat the New York governor on the back, Nixon left the impression that he would like to have Rockefeller on the ticket with him.

But he avoided committing himself irretrievably. To a direct inquiry as to whether the New York governor should be the No. 2 nominee, he replied that the question should be put to the governor.

His demonstration of good will seemed calculated to make it more difficult for anyone to lay at the Vice President's door any responsibility for a Rockefeller decision not to accept the second place nomination.

Nixon now agrees with most Republicans that a Nixon-Rockefeller ticket would be the strongest the Republicans could put in the field. But there are some mental reservations.

The fear exists among the vice president's followers that within the next couple of months Rockefeller may attack some Eisenhower Administration policies with which he has obvious disagreements.

Nixon knows he is tied to the administration's record. He can expand on it, but he doesn't feel he can be put in the position of repudiating parts of it. This attitude has contributed to his difficulties in attempting to draft a new farm program that won't be seized upon as a complete reversal of the policies of secretary of agriculture Ezra Taft Benson.

Any sharp criticism of the Eisenhower policies by Rockefeller would draw the curtain on him as a vice presidential nominee, so far as Nixon is concerned. And in the end, Nixon is going to name his running mate.

Ellenville Firm

ship, Dr. Vincent P. Gillen, principal of Ellenville High School, stated: "This is a splendid example of what enlightened business management can do to provide deserving students with an opportunity for advanced education."

Dr. Gillen, who is scheduled to assume the post of supervising principal of Ellenville Schools on July 1, has been named chairman of a committee which will consist of school authorities, a Channel Master representative, and an outside educational consultant on the college level.

The committee will select a winner and an alternate from each year's graduating class. If, at any time, the winner shall become ineligible to continue his college education, the alternate shall be eligible to receive the balance of the scholarship.

To be considered for the Channel Master Scholarship, a student must have ranked scholastically among the top 20 in his class during the 3½ years preceding graduation. Students who transfer to Ellenville High School must have completed nine units of work in the Ellenville School District by the time of their graduation to be eligible.

In announcing the Channel Master scholarship, Mr. Resnick noted that winning students would be free to choose their college and course of study.

"While engineering and technology were the foundation stones of our company," he said, "our continued growth is the product of many minds and many types of training. For that reason, we felt it would be unfair to limit our scholarship to any one branch of learning."

The Channel Master scholarship will be awarded at the annual Commencement exercises of the Ellenville Hgh School, beginning with the one to be held in June 1960.

Record Field of 2,480 to Seek U.S. Open Golf Championship

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Eleven past winners and titleholders from four other nations are in the record field of 2,480 seeking the 60th U. S. Open golf championship this year.

Arnold Palmer, Masters champion and king of the rugged pro tour, also is in the list which includes British Open champion Gary Player of South Africa, International Trophy winner Stan Leonard of Canada, South African champion Dennis Hutchinson, and the Canada Cup titleholders, Peter Thomson and Kel Nagle of Australia.

The U.S. Golf Assn., announcing the close of the entry list Wednesday night, said the field includes virtually every top name in the sport.

A double round of 36-hole trials will reduce the record entry to a compact 150, who will go to the tee at the Cherry Hills Country Club in Denver, Colo., June 16-18.

Most of the top contenders will be allowed to skip the first of these eliminations—local qualifying tests in 59 cities May 23 and 24. All except a select 21 must take their chances in the sectional trials slated in four centers June 6 and in eight others June 7.

Topping the exempt list is Bill Casper Jr., from Happy Valley, Calif., who won the title last year at Winged Foot in Mamaroneck, N.Y. He gets free entry into the tournament proper along with three of the five past champions—Tommy Bolt, Cary Middlecoff and Jack Fleck—plus invited outside champions and players who finished in the top ten or tied for at least tenth in the 1959 event.

Tight Race Seen In Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Eastern League appears headed for one of its tightest pennant races in years if early showings mean anything.

First it was the Williamsport Grays who got buried in the cellar after losing five in a row, but they dug out with four straight wins only to have that streak snapped Wednesday night in a 6-1 loss to Reading.

Then it appeared the Binghamton Triplets would be the push-over club. They were 1-5 Sunday but now are 4-5 and riding a three-game winning streak after Wednesday night's 10-0 shutout over Allentown.

In the other game, Lancaster defeated Springfield 6-2.

Thus the Giants failed to gain on the A-Sox who still lead by two games. Williamsport and Reading are tied for third with 6-7 marks, 2½ games off the pace. Lancaster (5-6) is fifth by 11 per centage points over Binghamton. But both the Red Roses and Triplets are only 2½ games from the top.

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Eugene Elkins produced the only major standings change in the American Bowling Congress Tournament Wednesday, grabbing fourth place in the singles with a 714 series.

The slender San Mateo, Calif., bowling supply salesman opened the first game with a spare, strung nine strikes and then converted a six-pin spare for 276. He followed with 222 and 216.

Elkins and the members of his Bel Mateo masters team claimed second place in the team all-events division after the quintet piled up a 45-game aggregate of 9,033.

Short Hurls Yanks Into First; Buhl Keeps Hex on LA Dodgers

Gives Six Hits As Bombers Nip Tigers, 4-2

Rookie Billy Short, the Kingston, Port Ewen and Newburgh claimed ace, hurled the New York Yankees into first place in the tight American League pennant race with a six-hit job on the slumping Detroit Tigers as the Bronx Bombers captured a 4-2 decision.

Making only the third start of his major league career, Billy had a two-hitter until the seventh and only some control trouble in the early innings kept him in hot water. The stocky lefthander, the International League's best pitcher during 1959, walked six during the game and struck out a pair, including the dangerous Rocky Colavito with a runner on base.

Aided By Homer

Short was aided by Elston Howard's home run in the sixth inning with a runner on. The blow came off Yankee nemesis Frank Lary and eased Short's chore the rest of the way. Howard had entered the game as a substitute for Yogi Berra, who was tossed out in the fourth inning by umpire John Flaherty.

In beating Lary for only the second time in two years, the Yankees grabbed a half-game lead over the Chicago White Sox. Baltimore tripped the Sox to second by beating the defending champions, 6-5, Wednesday night.

Washington barred Cleveland from a second place tie with a 7-6 victory over the Indians. The Kansas City As beat Boston 5-3 and jumped free of the cellar as Detroit plunked in with an eighth straight loss.

Lary (1-2) gave up six hits while losing for the seventh time in 28 career decisions against New York. He's won 12 of the last 15.

The Orioles rapped the White Sox with a four-run seventh inning capped by Brooks Robinson's two-run single after Al Smith's error had enabled the Birds to tie it 4-all. Frank Baumann (1-1) was the loser in relief of Early Wynn.

Hoyt Wilhelm (1-1) was the winner.

Jim Lemon drove in Washington's last four runs, bringing the Senators from behind with a two-run homer in the seventh for their eighth straight one-run decision and 12th in their 14 games.

Hal Woodeshick (1-0) was the winner in relief. Hal Briggs (1-1) lost it, in relief.

The As, winning on the road for the first time in eight tries, broke a shutout duel between winner Dick Hall (2-0) and Tom Brewer (0-2) with three runs in the fifth.

Pitching — Bob Buhl, Braves, kept Milwaukee in fourth place with three-hit 2-1 victory over the Dodgers.

Hitting — Jim Lemon, Senators, scored twice and drove in last four runs in 7-6 victory over the Indians, overcoming a 6-5 deficit with a two-run homer in the seventh.

Braves Hand Champs Fourth Straight Loss

The Los Angeles Dodgers now have found Bob Buhl to be just as tough as ever.

The bushy-browed right-hander pitched Milwaukee's Braves to a 2-1 victory with a three-hitter at Los Angeles Wednesday night, beating the Dodgers for the fourth time in a row as Del Crandall singled home a run in the second inning and then homered in the ninth.

It was the Dodgers' ninth defeat in their last dozen games and their fourth straight, dropping the fifth place champs two games below .500.

Pittsburgh retained a one-game lead, although the Chicago Cubs—unaware they were playing their final game under manager Charlie Grimm—dealt the Pirates a second consecutive defeat, 5-1. Second place San Francisco blew a chance for a first place tie, losing 3-2 to Cincinnati as Cal McLish won his first with a four-hitter. Fourth place St. Louis made it nine out of 11 by beating Philadelphia 5-3.

Buhl (2-1) had to duel Don Drysdale all the way for this one. Drysdale (3-3) gave up eight hits while going the distance for the fifth time in six starts.

The Cubs handed three - time winner Bob Friend his first loss of the year. Twenty-year-old southpaw Dick Ellsworth hurled for the Cubs and struck out four for his first major league victory.

After the game, Lou Boudreau, who skippered three major League clubs before becoming an announcer for Cub games, swapped jobs with Grimm, who lasted just 17 games in his third tour as Bruin manager.

McLish (1-2), the right-hander who became an ace in the AL after only an 8-21 record in the National League, blanked the Giants on one hit after Willie Kirkland's solo home run in the fourth inning. The Reds beat Jack Sanford (2-1) with Roy McMillan's two-out single in the sixth.

The Cards managed two runs but only three hits in seven innings against John Buzhardt, then scored three unearned runs in the eighth for the winless right-hander's third defeat. Joe Cunningham's two-run single was the winning hit, giving the decision to reliever Marshall Bridges (2-0).

Nolan Whiffs 15 Batters in Hurling Route

John Nolan pitched a four-hitter and struck out 15 batters as the Saugerties Sawyers won their sixth decision in eight starts, an 8-4 verdict yesterday at Hudson. Nolan went the distance for Bill Straub's nine and was scored on in only three frames.

The Sawyers tallied two runs in the first frame and then added one in the fourth, two in the fifth and three more in the sixth. Third baseman Billy Eckhoff was the hitting hero. He collected a triple and two singles in four trips to the dish while driving in a pair of runs. Nolan and catcher Bruce Freligh stroked a pair of safeties each.

Pete Gregory led the home side. He belted Nolan for a triple and a homer while driving in two runs.

Saugerties is scheduled to play Highland today and will meet Cairo tomorrow afternoon at Cantine Field.

No. 21 — Identical V's

By JIMMY DEMARET
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The accompanying illustration gives us our first look at the thumb and forefinger of the right hand as they close properly over the club shaft.

You will notice that they, too, form a line or V generally up toward the center of the body. This pictures the beginning of the backswing showing a view of the entire full-fingered grip.

The lines formed by the thumb and forefinger of the hands appear to be pointing more to the right than they would if the swing had not just begun. Notice that both of these lines or V's are identical in their direction. This indicates that everything possible is being done to be sure the hands are working as one.

When the thumb and forefinger of the right hand are closed over the club, the palm "pocket" formed by the gripping technique will neatly close over the thumb of the left.

Same direction

This causes the feeling that the hands are working as one without robbing you of a finger.

NEXT: The right hand is placed on the club at an angle identical to the one formed by the club and the left hand.

Charlie Grimm, Lou Boudreau Exchange Jobs

By JAN HARTNETT

CHICAGO (AP)—In an unprecedented baseball switch, former American League pilot Lou Boudreau today took over from Charlie Grimm as manager of the Chicago Cubs.

In effect, Boudreau handed a radio microphone to 62-year-old Grimm in exchange for managership of the wobbily Cubs after a typically abrupt decision by Cub owner P. K. Wrigley Wednesday.

The unpredictable Wrigley, who on three separate occasions had named Grimm as Cub boss, decided he didn't want to see jolly Cholly "take a beating" and named Boudreau, 42, manager as "just plain common sense."

Boudreau former star shortstop and manager of the Cleveland Indians, Boston Red Sox and Kansas City As took over direction of the Cubs shortly after the Chicagoans posted a 5-1 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Boudreau has been a commentator on Cub games for the past two seasons. He supplemented the play-by-play by Jack Quinland on WGN.

Now, the pride of suburban Harvey, Ill.—an athletic legend on the University of Illinois campus — can translate into action some of the ideas which he said have been going through his mind in the broadcasting booths.

Boudreau, who was replaced by Harry Craft as manager of the Kansas City As in 1957, said it was a good feeling to get back into uniform again, but in particular the uniform of the Chicago Cubs.

Boudreau was to meet with the players and Grimm today.

14 Are Named For Derby Race

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Tompion, champion of California, and Bally Ache, best to come out of Florida, head a field of 14 three-year old horses named today for Saturday's 86th running of the $125,000 added Kentucky Derby.

The only mild surprise as the names of the colts were dropped into the entry box was the failure of Calumet Farm, winner of seven of these runs for the roses, to name two horses.

Trainer Jimmy Jones said Hillsborough would be the lone bearer of the famous Calumet devil-red silks. Pied d'Or had been considered a probable running mate.

If all parade postward to the 4:30 p.m. EST start, the 1¼-mile trip around Churchill Downs will have a gross value of $160,200 with a net of $116,100 going to the winner.

Johnson Scores Win Over Floyd

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "This makes you look sick, but what can you do when you need work."

Pat Oliviery was talking about Harold Johnson's unanimous decision over Clarence (Tiger) Floyd at Convention Hall Wednesday night.

Oliviery, manager of Johnson, was as disgusted with the 10-rounder as were the 1,683 fans who turned out for the nationally televised contest.

Johnson, No. 1 contender for Archie Moore's light heavyweight title, spent the entire fight chasing the retreating Floyd. When he caught up with the 27-year-old New Yorker, which wasn't too often, Johnson piled up enough points with solid left jabs and hocks to win an easy verdict.

All of the action came in the last two rounds when Johnson cornered the clowning Floyd in a neutral corner and pounded him with right and left hand shots that stung the loser into fighting back.

The 50-41, 49-41, 50-40 scoring of the referee and two judges was generous to Floyd to say the least. The Associated Press carded Johnson a 50-32 winner.

Floyd, who fought his way into light heavyweight prominence with an upset here last March over then unbeaten Von Clay, now has a 10-8 record.

The 31-year-old Johnson earned his 12th straight victory boosting his career record to 63-8.

Golfers Set to Play In Tourney of Champs

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Twenty - one golf professionals faced more than money pressure and par today for the scheduled start of the $42,400 Tournament of Champions.

Wind was the major problem.

Gusts that registered from 37 to 42 miles an hour hit the Desert Inn Country Club late Wednesday and the weatherman predicted more today.

Tee-off time for the first twosome was set for 1 p.m. (PDT).

The field is made up exclusively of golfers who have won one or more officially sanctioned PGA tournaments in the previous 12 months.

BY CHET JOY

A trout fishing jaunt over the weekend to the Neversink River and the famed Beaverkill, Pass Junction pool, found the nimrods out in force all the way down to Cokes Falls and Fishes Eddy on the East branch of the Delaware. There was hardly a pool of any size that didn't have one to four fishermen covering its reaches in hopes of hitting the jackpot. Junction pool had an even dozen enthusiasts who were outwardly irked to have to pause in their concentration to let a fleet of shoot the rapids canoe sport followers glide by.

Even those out of the way spots a quarter of a mile from the road, through woods, to a favorite hole in search of privacy had brother sportsmen appearing out of nowhere. With pressures on these outdoor recreational areas predicted to be several times greater in a few years it looks as if the Delaware River Basin water development project is coming just in the nick of time. Although recreation is only one phase of this multi purpose program fresh water fishing alone represents big business with $169,000,000 spent annually in New York State.

Flood damage control through a system of structures will eliminate approximately $8,250,000 damage yearly in the Delaware Basin. This initial approach will provide state park facilities to satisfy 23,600,000 recreational visitors annually along with increased electrical power output and needed water supply vital to a fast expanding economy.

The trout take was fair with Delaware Basin, states of New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware well represented with one Florida car observed. The largest trout reported was a brownie taken by Em Mayes, a local expert, at Downsville Dam. It was 23 inches long.

So we made ours of heavy gauge steel that will REALLY resist wear. Result: A muffler that costs no more, and has a Factory Written Lifetime Unconditional Guarantee for as long as you own your car. We'll install it in 15 MINUTES . . . FREE . . . Yes, no installation charge and no waiting. Save yourself money and still get expert workmanship.

Shandaken Wants to Know Law's Effect on Esopus Creek

Resort owners and contractors of the Town of Shandaken met last Thursday with representatives of the State Conservation Department in an effort to ascertain what effect the Sealey Law, passed by the 1959 Legislature, will have on their use of the Esopus Creek. The meeting, held at the premises of Town Clerk Joseph Feitzinger, was attended by approximately 40 persons.

Under the Sealy Law, which became effective October 1, 1959, landowners and contractors are restricted as to what they may do in certain streams of the state, including the Esopus Creek and its tributaries. Before putting a bulldozer into the stream a landowner must obtain a permit from the Conservation Department and the Department of Public Works. In some cases a third permit is required from the Federal Flood Control Commission of the Corps of Army Engineers.

Two State Men Speak

Dr. C. W. Green, Chief of the Bureau of Fish in Albany, and John Gould biologist from the Poughkeepsie office of the Conservation Department spoke at the meeting. The State Department of Public Works was not represented.

Beside resort owners and contractors, representatives of local fire departments and members of the Shandaken town board attended the meeting.

Resort owners protested the law would deprive them of a large portion of their income which is derived from summer vacationists who seek swimming facilities. Unable to construct gravel dams on the streams for swimming pools, they protested the law would work a hardship. Feitzinger protested gravel dams would not be detrimental to fishing as the Conservation Department contended, but would provide haven for fish in times of low water.

Fire officials protested that pools were necessary in case of fire and the contractors protested that they would be deprived of a livelihood from erection of gravel dams for property owners along the streams.

Say They'll Post Land

Several property owners stated if they were not permitted to erect gravel-fill dams for swimming on their premises they would post their lands against fishermen.

A group of Shandaken residents gathered at the town hall after the hearing to discuss the problem. They concluded that unless the laws were modified or revised, they would post their own lands and urge the posting of other premises in the area.

Several members of the Phoenicia Area Chamber of Commerce stated they would urge the Chamber to act as a "test case" with their community swimming pool.

DAILY NEWSPAPERS SELL FOOD FROM FARM TO FAMILY

THE FOOD INDUSTRY, biggest business in all the world, depends on the daily newspaper to help it move its many thousands of different items off grocers' shelves. In 1958 consumers spent a record $79,000,000,000 for food.

Food processors use the daily newspaper to keep consumers constantly aware of the brand names that appear on their packages and containers. They rely on it as the most important medium to carry news of over 6,000 new products they announce every year. Because food is news, they naturally turn to the world's outstanding news medium.

On the local scene the daily newspaper plays an equally efficient and important role for food distributors and retailers. For them the daily newspaper is an indispensable means of communication between them and the food-conscious housewife. It is indispensable because it generates immediate results.

All along the vital food line, from growers and processors to the hungry consumer, the daily newspaper, with a record circulation of 58,605,000 copies, performs a gigantic task of moving this mass of goods. It moves all kinds of products because it sells them nationally and locally.

Ulster County Chorus Plans 'Spring Interlude' Tonight

The Ulster County Chorus presents its first annual concert, "Spring Interlude" tonight at 8 o'clock at the Onteora Central School auditorium in Boiceville.

The program, which will also feature several outstanding soloists from the surrounding area, has been announced as follows:

Turn Back O Man, Gustav Holst; He, Watching Over Israel, from Mendelssohn's Elijah; How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place from Brahms' Requiem by Brahms; all sung by the chorus.

Alberta Fox, soprano, will sing two solos: O Del Mio Dolce Ardo by Gluck and Ich Liebe Dich by Grieg. Carl Davis, pianist, will play Sonata in C Minor op. 10 No. 1 by Beethoven and Waltz opus 42 by Chopin.

The chorus will sing Black Is the Color of My True Love's Hair, arranged by Taylor, and Waters Ripple and Flow, arranged by Deems Taylor. Solo parts will be sung by Carolyn Schrier and John Ebbs.

Several Soloists

Vocal soloists will be featured in part four, with Lyn Burnstine, soprano, singing Tu Lo Sai by Torelli and The Wren by David Donaldson, with flute obbligato by David Donaldson. Robert Jacobs, baritone, will sing Still as the Night by Bohm; Wiegenlied by Brahms and Three for Jack Wetherby. Eleanor Proper, soprano, will sing An die Musik by Schubert and Traume by Wagner. The chorus finishes with Shenandoah, arranged by Scott, in which John Ebbs has the solo part; and Neighbors Chorus by Offenbach.

The Ulster County Chorus was organized and began weekly rehearsals in the fall of 1959 under the direction of Earl Proper of the Onteora School faculty. Miss Winifred Bateman is the accompanist and the first year's officers were: Joan Osgood, president; Judy Moses, vice president; Louis Kricker, secretary; Arnold Reynolds, treasurer; and Doris Mercer, librarian. The chorus numbers 25 men and women from Kingston, Saugerties, Shokan, West Shokan, Woodstock and Phoenicia.

On Monday, May 9, at 7 p. m., the chorus members and guests will close their 1959-60 season with a covered dish supper at the Bearsville Odd Fellows lodge hall.

Adult Volunteers Are Needed For Girl Scout Neighborhood

There is never a lack of girls to fill a troop, but there is a definite need for adult volunteers in various capacities, it was revealed at a recent meeting of the Woodstock-West Hurley Neighborhood of Girl Scouts.

Mrs. Charles Klothe, temporary chairman of the Neighborhood, called the meeting on April 28 to determine the course of Girl Scouting in this area for the coming year. Mrs. Nina Segal of New Paltz, vice president of the Ulster County Council of Girl Scouts, was invited to lead the discussion.

A program, to be adequate, requires more than a leader who meets with troop weekly, it was pointed out. It needs the services of adults who have had experience in committee work, who possess specific skills and who have a genuine interest in the development of tomorrow's citizens. Behind every smoothly running local scout district there are a dozen persons who work closely with the girls' leaders to assist in offering the best possible program, meeting the needs and interests of the children.

Need Is Stressed

A large part of the evening's discussion centered around the need for volunteers and how the community could be made aware of this. It was unanimously agreed theat Girl Scouting is a community activity worth fostering and that every effort should be made to bring its value before the public.

Girl Scouts were organized in Woodstock in 1946 with three troops. In less than 15 years, the program has almost doubled, with a large increase expected next fall. The attractions of scouting for girls of 7 into the early teens are many and varied, for it is a club of girls grouped by ages, functioning democratically, under competent leaders. The program advances skills, encourages community service and at the same time provides the fun of working and playing together. Scouting is a positive, constructive force, the ideals of which make a lasting impression on the formative minds and spirit of these youngsters.

Report 12 Fires During April

Fire Chief George Haythorne's report at Woodstock Fire Company's No. 1 meeting this week revealed that there were 12 fires during the month of April. Nine were grass fires (5 in Woodstock and 2 each in Wittenberg and Zena, and three building fires in Woodstock.

Chester Wolven reported that all damage done to the fire hall by the recent faulty operation of the oil burner has been repaired. He also announced that John Peper has donated to the company the nozzle of the old hand pumper that had been used by the company in 1910.

The bazaar committee reported that plans for the bazaar in June have been completed and will be announced shortly. The invitations extended by the American Legion for the company's participation in the Memorial Day services was accepted. As the company wishes to make an extra good showing this year, it was urged that all members make a special effort to attend and report to the fire house at 10 a. m. on Memorial Day. Members who do not have the new uniform can come as in the past with hat, white shirt, black tie and dark pants as the regulation uniform. A photograph of the company will be taken that morning. Company president, Bruce Reynolds, says: "Let's go and make a good showing."

The company voted to go to the Hudson Valley Firemen's Association parade in Monticello on June 18 and the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association parade in Kingston the last Saturday in July.

In order to improve the service to the people of Woodstock, it was voted to purchase two 12 by 10 feet canvases to be used as salvage covers to reduce water damage at fires.

Richard Kullmann and Raymond Cooks were elected members of the company.

Library Opens Drive for Funds

This week, the Woodstock Library is mailing its annual membership appeal, a letter asking for continued strong support. The appeal for funds points up that most everyone knows about Woodstock's Library, but not everyone remembers that the Library is not a public institution financed wholly by the town or state.

On the contrary, the Woodstock Library is an association of members which by contributing money, intelligent thought and energetic action has given the community at large a fine, growing collection of books covering the widest interests. Since roughly 10 per cent of the Library's income is derived from public monies, the membership will again contribute an even greater portion. This should be a pleasant burden.

New organizations, if worthwhile, seldom want for enthusiasm or funds, but often older organizations are taken for granted, or it is assumed that they can 'get along' until some service is discontinued or some plan laid aside for lack of adequate funds.

Can the membership of the Library Association afford to do less than give its whole-hearted support to an institution which has constantly kept abreast of the growing needs of the community in the most positive and enterprising way?

Woodstock has the opportunity to answer this question this week.

AUXILIARY PRESENTS BED — Ladies' Auxiliary of the Olive Fire Department has presented a bed to the Town of Olive for free use of its residents. They have already contributed three hospital beds and two wheel-chairs. Shown with the new bed, from the left: Mrs. A. Adsit, president, Town of Olive Public Health Nursing Committee, and Mrs. Floyd Merrihew, chairman of the Loan Closet. (Stanley photo)

The Business and Defense Services Administration unit of the executive reserve are being invited into a two-day session at Washington, D. C. where reserve units organized in a number of government agencies for possible emergency duty will participate in the second national training conference.

Christian Science Services on Sunday

Ability to resist and overcome temptation is available to all mankind today. This is the theme of the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man" which will be heard Sunday at Christian Science services in Woodstock.

The stirring account in Matthew (ch. 4) of how Christ Jesus met and mastered temptation will be featured in the Bible readings.

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include this (393:12): "Rise in the strength of Spirit to resist all that is unlike good. God has made man capable of this, and nothing can vitiate the ability and power divinely bestowed on man."

The Golden Text is from Matthew (26:41): "Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation."

'The Ideal Woman' Is Topic for Methodists At Sunday's Service

Sunday, May 8, Mother's Day, the Day, the Rev. James W. Cook will preach on the topic "The Ideal Woman." The text for the sermon is found in Proverbs 31:10-31. Everyone is invited to join with us in worship services. A nursery is provided in the Woodstock church during the worship hour.

The hours of worship and Sunday School are: Wittenberg, worship, 9:30 a. m., Sunday school at 10:30 a. m.; Woodstock, Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., worship at 11 a. m.; Shady, Sunday school at 10:30 a. m., worship at 7:30 p. m.

Important Dates

The Woodstock-Wittenberg Nominating Committees will meet Friday, May 6, in the parsonage at 8 p. m.

The Woodstock - Wittenberg Church will go to Camp Epworth at High Falls for a painting and repair session on Saturday, May 7. All those who plan to go are requested to meet in front of the Woodstock church at 7:15 a. m. on Saturday morning. Please take a picnic lunch with you. If members cannot leave at that time, they will be welcome at any other time during the day. Workers are asked to bring paint brushes, hammers, rags, etc.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It would be easy to draw some conclusions from the approaching and premature demise of NBC's expensive, loudly exploited Startime series if the general level of the shows had been higher.

The sponsor, who planned to carry the hour-long Tuesday night series through June has—as NBC puts it—"asked for relief," and the programs now will wind up the end of May.

Of course, if all of the Startime shows had been like "The Turn of the Screw," "The Wicked Scheme of Jebal Deeks," or "My Three Angels," it would be easy to come to some pretty devastating conclusions about the tastes of the viewing public which tuned in in disappointing numbers. Now the sponsor, which budgeted about 15 million dollars for the series, plans the June Startime money on "Overland Trail" and "Laramie," two hour-long Westerns much like all other hour-long Westerns.

Advertising agency men are, it seems, one of the very few minority groups television feels free to satirize. It was done again Wednesday night on CBS, a comedy "Girl in the Gold Bathtub."

The play had a preposterous plot about an ad man who buys a 16th century Italian tub for his soap selling campaign. However, the important advertising executive, repeating such Madison Avenue cliches as "it had old world charm, atmospherewise," has itself become a television cliche.

The play had a good cast, nice Italian atmosphere and no guns or corpses.

Recommended tonight: "H. M. S. Pinafore," NBC, 9:30-10 (Eastern Daylight Time)—a repeat of Ernie Ford's abbreviated version of the Gilbert and Sullivan comic opera.

The U.S. death rate from heart disease has risen from 355.5 to 361.8 per 100,000 population since 1950.

Name 3 County Winners of CYO Essay Contest

Winners of the Catholic Youth Organization's county essay contest on the topic, "The Role of Youth in the Home," were announced today by Miss Marguerite Flaherty, chairman of the judge's committee.

They are: First (boy's division) Daniel Gaffney, second, John Dreiser, both of St. Joseph's School, Kingston.

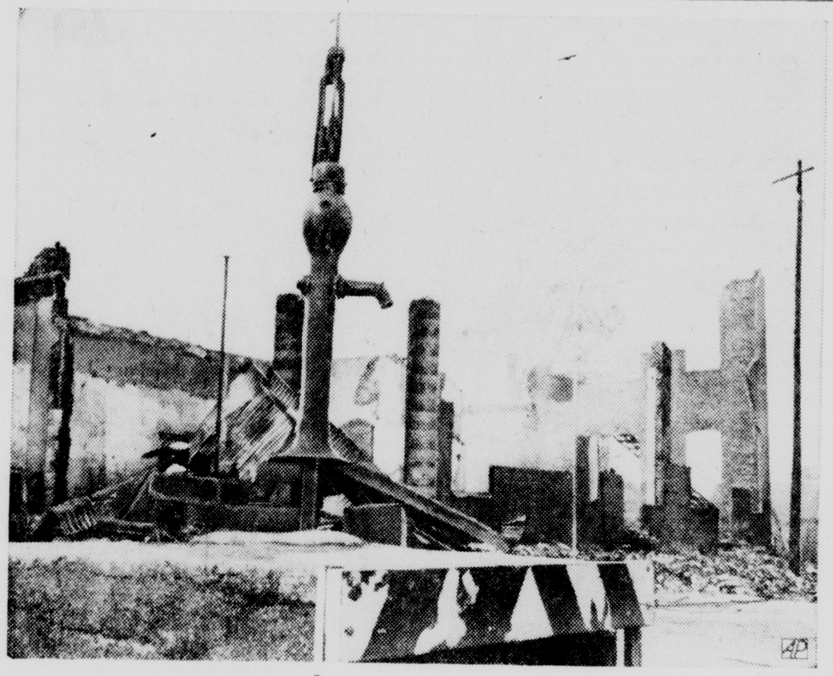

First, (girl's division) Mary Rosner of Seventh Grade, St. Mary's of the Snow School, Saugerties, and second, Sharon Jones of St. Joseph's School, Kingston.

The winners were awarded medals, gold for first place and silver for second. Miss Flaherty said 181 essays were submitted by the county parochial school children.

Word's Derivation

Our word "blackball" is derived from the classical Greek election method of dropping white or black balls into an urn to denote votes for or against.

COOL FEET AFTER HOT MARCH — Young demonstrators cool off in fountain at London's Trafalgar Square after three-day march from Aldermaston, British atomic center. Some 40,000 persons attended rally against production of nuclear weapons.

A FUTILE SYMBOL — Ruins of the business district of Larussell in southwest Missouri form somber background for the old town pump which was of no help in stopping a fire that destroyed buildings. Firemen were hampered by the lack of water.

20 Persons Hurt

South Central Areas Raked by Violent Weather

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Violent weather ripped across areas in south central sections of the country Wednesday night and today, causing extensive property damage and injuring more than 20 persons.

Tornadic winds, heavy rain and hail pounded areas in Oklahoma, Texas, Missouri and Kansas. Heaviest damage and highest injury toll appeared to be in north central Texas and the southern half of Oklahoma.

Hardest hit in Oklahoma were Oil Center, a town of about 100 near Ada, and Soper, a community of about 300 in the south central part of the state. More than a score of homes were destroyed or damaged in the two towns. Wind gusts up to 85 m.p.h. hammered Oklahoma City, while a twister injured three persons at Lawton.

Twelve persons were injured in the Oklahoma storms and at least 12 suffered injuries in a tornado which hit Lake Worth, north of Fort Worth, Tex.

Other twisters struck rural areas near Urbana, Mo., and Ness City in Western Kansas. No injuries were reported.

Thunderstorms rumbled across areas from the northwest corner of Kansas southeastward to the mouth of the Mississippi River. Heaviest rain was nearly six inches in Burrwood, La., most of which fell in about two hours.

Reduced Toll

February saw the first reduction in the U. S. traffic death toll in three months. The toll was 2,370 in 1960, as compared with 2,420 the same month of the preceding year.

The term "illiterate person" generally means any person 10 years of age or over who is unable to read and write.

Destructive

Bear, deer, porcupine, rabbits and other rodents destroy between 12 to 15 million dollars' worth of trees annually, according to estimates.

Travelers

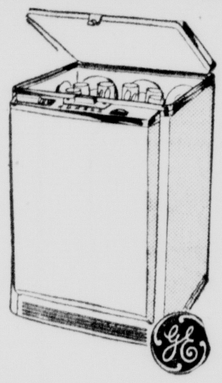

Americans took 231 million trips of more than 100 miles during 1957, each of which lasted an average of five and one-half days, according to a survey.
